

The Poem Part2

Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. Which of the following are complete sentences? Which are not complete? Give a reason for your answer each time.

- a. She laughed pleasantly
- b. The large, black dog
- c. Walking along slowly
- d. Sit down
- e. The engine's whistle
- f. They played cricket on Sunday

B. Write the proper nouns found in the following sentences.

- a. Raheel and Hanif are going to Karachi on Tuesday.
- b. They are going on the train, which leaves Lahore at two o'clock.
- c. From Karachi they are going to fly to Dubai on an Emirates plane.
- d. They will stay with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins at 5, Park Lane, Dubai.

C. Pick out all the common nouns from the following passage.

It was a sunny day. The children huffed and puffed as they rode up the hill on their bicycles. When they got to the top they dismounted, lay their bicycles on the grass, and sat on some large rocks beside the road. Far below them they could see a river winding its way past a small village. All the human figures below looked minute, like tiny toys in a make-believe land.

D. Which of the following are proper nouns? Write them in the table below and don't forget to put in the capital letters. (Hint: There are fourteen of them.)

- mouse pakistan flower saturday venus
- geography stalin sugar anwar swim
- madrid took they captain khan nile
- mr jacob fiat hair wool secretary
- temple majid islam home frog
- tennis jam united nations tiger film
- minar-e-pakistan

E. Try to make adjectives from these proper nouns. Remember to start the adjectives too with a capital letter.

Example: America = American

- Brazil
- Elizabeth
- Mars
- Spain