

10. The Railway Journey

Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. Use the underlined words in sentences of your own.

- a. He tried to lift up the stone.

- b. He pulled off his shirt.

- c. The king ruled over a large country.

- d. I hope you'll join in the game.

- e. Please give me back my pencil.

B. Divide the following sentences into their subjects and predicates.

- a. The boy fell off his bicycle.
Subject: _____ Predicates: _____
- b. The bicycle was lying on the ground.
Subject: _____ Predicates: _____
- c. The boy was on the ground too!
Subject: _____ Predicates: _____
- d. He had hurt his arm.
Subject: _____ Predicates: _____
- e. A man took the boy to hospital.
Subject: _____ Predicates: _____

C. Join the sentences with the word who.

Example: This is the man. He came here yesterday.

This is the man who came here yesterday.

- a. Find me a man. He is rich and brave.

- b. This is the teacher. He taught my grandfather.
- c. This is the carpenter. He made your chairs.
- d. This is the girl. She came by bus.

D. What did the boys tell Moiz when they arrived in Lahore?

E. Write the story they told. You may write it as a dialogue (conversation) if you like.