

Outside My Window

Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. Match the words in A with the abbreviations in B.

Abbreviations are short forms.

A

1. Mister
2. Street
3. Doctor
4. Saint
5. Road

B

- St
- Rd
- Dr
- St
- Mr

B. Use the following in sentences of your own. Be careful; the meaning changes when the words are split!

- a. Nobody
- b. Somebody
- c. Anyone
- d. No body
- e. Some body
- f. Any one

C. Find the objects of the verbs in the following sentences.

- a. The squirrel eats nuts.

- b. The old man built a new house.
- c. My father killed a very large cockroach.
- d. My uncle lost an extremely valuable watch.
- e. The farmer caught the chicken.
- f. Eat your vegetables!
- g. She shouted at the magpie in the garden.

Note that some verbs don't have an object.

Examples: The boy slept.
The sun rose.
They argued.
The old man walked.
My father and mother left.
The beautiful girl was breathing.

D. All these words contain the letter z. What are they?

- a. The noise made by a bee
- b. An animal like a horse, with stripes
- c. A place where you might see this animal
- d. Not hard-working; sluggish and idle
- e. A sharp tool with which to shave

E. Note the sound of s in the following. Say the words aloud and listen carefully to the sound.

cosy

toast

television

island

mouse

daisies

sizes

please

measure

roses

sausage

sample

sugar

pose

mass

misses

safe

leisure

rise

rust

F. 'Neither gives up, nor do they give in.'

Determination is a good skill to have. When is being determined a good thing? Can it be a bad thing? Discuss what determination means and make some notes in response to the questions.

Write about a time when you showed determination.