

1. Faiza's Biscuits

Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. What are the words? They all begin with bo—.

- a. This is made of glass and holds liquids.
- b. There are some inside your body.
- c. Not a girl, not a man, or a woman.
- d. Strong and full of courage.

B. Read the following sentences carefully; then use the underlined words in sentences of your own.

- a. Don't give up your music lessons.
- b. Hold on tight to your kite-string.
- c. The dentist can pull out a bad tooth.
- d. Don't laugh at accidents.
- e. Don't take away her pencils.

C. Put capital letters and full stops. Rewrite the sentences.

- a. mr khan worked in an office
- b. the office was in Lahore
- c. one day mr khan went to multan
- d. he stayed at the royal hotel on nazim-ud-din road
- e. on monday, he caught a plane back to Lahore

D. Make up sentences using the given words:

a. Is

b. Are

c. Did

d. Does

e. Was

f. Were

E. In your own words, write the story of Faiza and the biscuits. You can add ideas of your own. Use some conversation, too.

