

Glossary

blossoms	flowers on a tree or bush chirp	the sound a bird makes coast	land near the sea (coastal land/areas) colony	a group of animals, insects, or plants of one kind living together cosy	comfortable and warm defeat	conquer, beat, overcome, overpower flourish	grow or develop in a healthy way globe	the Earth shown on a sphere harbour	a place on the coast where ships take shelter hive	a place in which bees live hover	remain in one place in the air icicles	hanging pieces of ice information	facts or knowledge kimono	a Japanese robe with wide sleeves librarian	a person in charge of a library pollen	a powdery substance produced by flowers rake	collect leaves with a rake receive	accept, get shovel	a tool used for moving snow, soil, etc.
silent zone	an area where there should be little or no noise sly	cunning
taxi	an aeroplane moving slowly on the ground before it takes off and after it lands trapped	caught
tremble	to shake with fear or excitement united	joined together
vixen	a female fox