

The Operating System (like Windows) is the computer's boss. It manages all the hardware and software.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Sort the items into two columns: Hardware and Software:

Microsoft Word

Google Chrome

A game

Windows OS

Printer

Mouse

Keyboard

Keyboard

Hardware

Software

Forming Links

2. Name one Operating System you use on your:

a. Computer

b. Phone

Vocabulary Matching

3. Match the task with how the OS assists in executing it:

Click the mouse

OS tells the screen to show the pointer move

Save a drawing

OS manages the game software and computer hardware

Turn on the computer

OS helps store the file on the hard drive

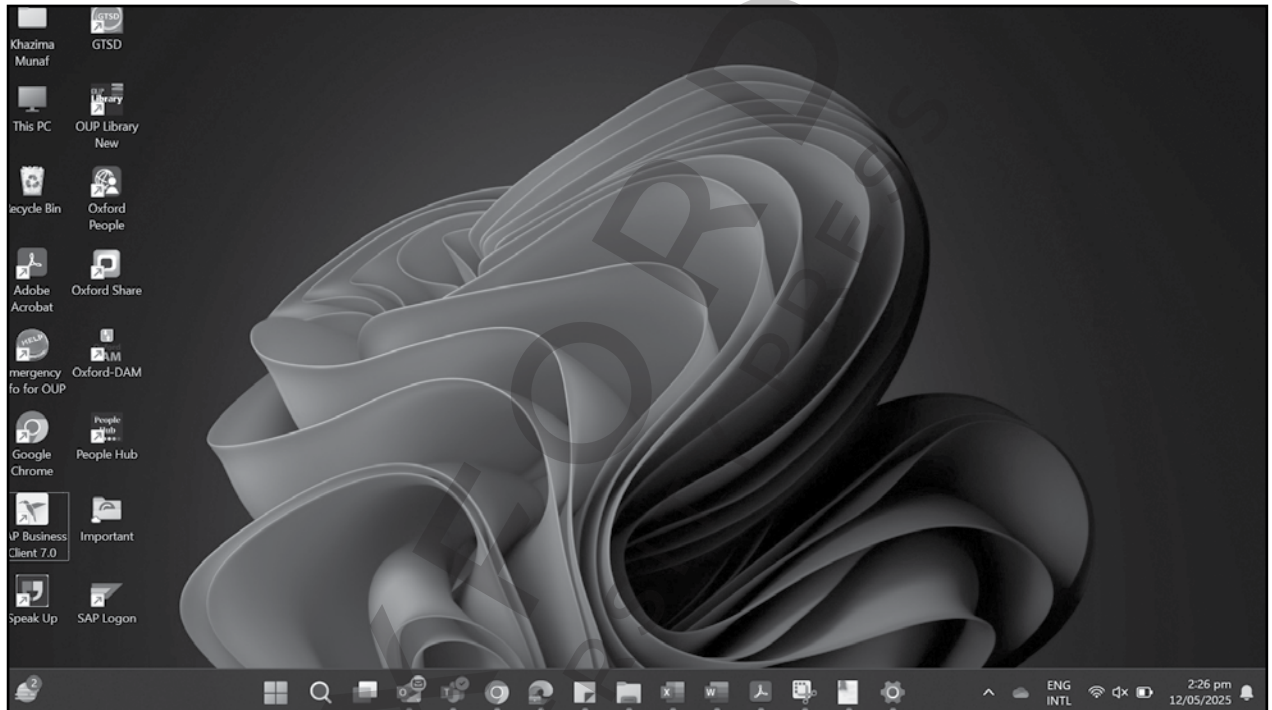

Open a game

OS wakes everything up and shows the desktop

Matching Parts

1. Look at the screenshot of a Windows desktop and label with letters areas as per descriptions given below and circle the elements on the Taskbar.

Descriptions:

- Finds programs and files - Label A
- Shows your favorite programs - Label B
- Turns off the computer - Label C
- Circle the Start Button
- Circle any open program icons
- Circle the clock

2. Besides the bottom, where else could the taskbar sometimes be?

Application Based Questions

3. Follow the paths in the folder structure to answer the questions.

Folder Structure:

- Documents
 - School
 - Homework.docx
 - Project.pptx
 - Fun
 - GameShortcut
 - Photos
 - Vacation.jpg

a. Start at Documents. Draw the path to find Vacation.jpg.

b. What folder is Homework.docx inside?

c. If you are in the 'Fun' folder, how do you get to the 'School' folder?