

Review Test 3

A. Replace the underlined phrases with these words.

vital intangible alighted prepare match

1. The two colours did not go with each other, so an alternative was suggested.
2. They had to get ready for the examinations; they were unable to join the basket ball team.
3. When the bus came to a stop, all the passengers got down from it.
4. Thoughts and ideas are without physical shape and are sometimes difficult to express.
5. Being truthful is necessary to lead an honest life.

B. From the given list, pick out the correct word to replace the underlined word/s in each sentence.

a similarity returned doubtful avoid obvious

1. It is evident that he is a thrifty man.
2. Need we evade the question?
3. I can see an analogy between the two stories.
4. His alibi seems dubious.
5. She reciprocated his friendliness with equal sincerity.

C. Insert quotation marks where they should appear.

1. Wordsworth's The Solitary Reaper is a well-known poem.
2. He was asked to define efficiency.
3. Students often confuse sometime and sometimes.
4. When do the holidays begin? the student asked.
5. You may pack your books and leave, said the teacher.

D. Insert brackets where appropriate.

1. The accident occurred four years ago crippled him.
2. The flood last weekend was the worst one in five years took a heavy toll.
3. Mr. Arif's weight was 70 kilogrammes 154 lbs.
4. The distance between one town and the other was 400 kilometres 248.5 miles.

Review Test 3

- E. Study the sentences for errors and then rewrite each correctly.
1. There aren't some Swiss watches in this showcase.
 2. Put down your book first and then recite the poem expressively.
 3. The United States of America is one of the richest country in the world.
 4. No mistakes was found in the proof copy.
 5. The house, together with the furnitures, were sold at a good price.
- F. Fill in the blanks with the verbs lay or lie in their correct tense form.
1. May I _____ down for a while?
 2. The turtles have _____ their eggs in the sand.
 3. He _____ the facts before the committee.
 4. She _____ awake for some time.
 5. The dog must have _____ on the sofa and spoilt it.
- G. Write a dialogue between two friends about unannounced holidays and their harmful effects on Pakistan.