Introduction

New Oxford Modern English (NOME) is a complete English course and is currently used all over Pakistan, in the Middle East, and in other South Asian countries.

It is hoped that this new edition will satisfy the demands of pupils, teachers, and parents—not an easy task, by any means—and that the teaching and learning of English will become an enjoyable and worthwhile experience for the user.

For pupils, we have produced books and materials to capture the imagination and make lessons a pleasure rather than an imposition. The core materials—the student books and workbooks—are full of lively reading passages, attractive illustrations, and interesting, thought-provoking exercises. The books have been graded and structured in such a way that much self-learning can be done.

For teachers, the core materials will make their task of teaching English much easier. We hope that teachers will take the time to go through this Guide in detail. It will explain why things are done in a particular way and how best to use the core materials. The Teaching Guide contains detailed notes and information about each page of the textbook and workbook, suggestions for various activities in class, lists of structures and vocabulary, and much more.

Parents will appreciate that their children are being given the opportunity to learn English using the best tools available. Learning English, however, should not be confined solely to the classroom. Parents may take an active part in helping their children to learn by providing encouragement, and a peaceful and attractive environment at home. Hopefully, parents will provide their children with good supplementary books and magazines to read, discuss school work, and speak in English whenever possible.

1. Components of the course

The Student Books

The Student Books provide a base or springboard from which to operate. The books are carefully graded and structured. By stages, they introduce the pupil to the letters of the alphabet, simple words, sentences, paragraphs, stories, poems, writing of all kinds (descriptive, dramatic, narrative), and a whole range of ideas.

The Student Books present the pupil with graded material incorporating reading matter followed by exercises. The reading scheme has been especially designed so that a number of different approaches are utilized. The emphasis in the early Student Books is on phonics, although some words, due to the very nature of English, fall into the ‘whole word’ or ‘look-and-say’ category.

Of the various methods of teaching reading, it has been shown that a blend of phonics and the ‘look-and-say’ methods is the most satisfactory. Some words in English lend themselves to the phonic approach and can be broken up into their constituent parts. We can do this by pronouncing the individual phonic sounds that make up the whole word. Such words are usually simple, single-syllabic words, such as cat, hit, let, and bun. Many words cannot be broken up into their constituent parts by applying phonic rules. For example, words such as the, is, this, and of must be learnt as ‘look-and-say’ words. Trying to break such words up into separate phonic sounds will only lead to confusion.
Many such words are used frequently in English and are important because not many sentences can be constructed without using some of them! The introduction of such words, then, cannot be left till a later stage when the pupil arrives at the appropriate phonic level. They must be introduced earlier on as ‘look-and-say’ words. An approach that is strictly and exclusively phonic tends to lead to stilted and forced language. In addition, such an exclusive approach may confuse the pupil when he is faced with words that do not conform to a pattern that has been introduced and learnt. For example, if the pupil is taught that the letter c produces the sound ‘kuh’ (cat, cub), what is he/she then going to make of the words city and ice? The pupil cannot apply any previously learnt ‘rules’ in order to decipher these new words or tackle reading material independent of the teacher’s assistance. This is why, in the early textbooks, there is a blend of two approaches: phonic and ‘look-and-say’.

In Student Book Primer A, considerable emphasis has been placed on oral activities before reading. This is a direct attempt to encourage teachers to spend more time ‘using the language actively’. Generally, too much time is devoted to silent (reading and writing) activities in class—meaning and understanding can only come through activity and practical usage, especially in the early years.

In Primer B, the second Student Book, the pupils are introduced to many new words, using both phonics and ‘look-and-say’. The pupils are also introduced to whole sentences which incorporate controlled structures.

From Student Book 1 onwards, the books contain language which again is controlled; the structures are graded and the books contain appropriate vocabulary, stories, and poems, followed by varied exercises to develop all the necessary skills.

Speaking and Listening before Reading

Reading is a complicated activity requiring considerable skills. It is essential that before pupils begin to learn how to read, they gain as much facility as possible in the skill of speaking. They must also be given the opportunity to listen to the words of the language being spoken. The pupil must first learn that the object with which he writes is called a pen or pencil, the object he throws up in the air is a ball, and when he is moving forward quickly he is running. The pupil may be familiar with these words in the mother tongue, but not in English. First, the learner of English must familiarize himself with the words of the language through practical activities and concrete examples. He must get used to a whole new vocabulary, new structures, and an entirely different way of pronouncing words.

In many schools all over the country, teachers begin the teaching of English by introducing reading and writing (the alphabet) before they have given the pupils a chance to explore and acquire some skill in using the spoken language. Pupils must be given this opportunity if they are to make some sense of what they are doing. By making these exercises a part of the Student Book, it is hoped that teachers will realize how important it is for pupils to practise speaking before learning to read. (For a more detailed account of pre-reading activities, please see the relevant chapter later in this Guide.)

The textual matter and exercises in the Student Books offer much scope for oral work, and it is recommended that pupils be given every opportunity to discuss the text and the pictures, and be encouraged to read aloud to improve their pronunciation.
The Workbooks

The Workbooks are closely related to the Student Books. The oral and reading exercises in the Student Books should be followed immediately afterwards by oral and written exercises in the Workbook. Each page of the Student Book consists of oral work followed by some reading. Similarly, each page of the Workbook entails oral work followed by some kind of written work.

In the Primers, much of the written work consists of writing letters and words. Naturally, this means that pupils also have to read. But remember, writing is an even more complicated activity than reading. It involves eye-and-hand coordination, motor control, and much more. Because pupils find writing a laborious activity, the exercises that are introduced in the Workbook are varied. The pupils are not expected to write letters and words all the time, but have been given ample scope to draw, colour, match, copy, and join lines and boxes. Further writing activities based on the exercises in the Student Book and Workbook will greatly benefit the pupils and help to develop their reading and writing skills. Suggestions for such activities are contained in the detailed notes, but it is up to the teacher to decide whether or not such additional work is necessary.

The Workbooks which correspond to the later Student Books contain exercises which are closely related to the topic(s) covered in the Student Book. In some instances, however, a new topic (concerning the use of special vocabulary or structure or activity) is introduced in order to cover as much ground as possible. Full instructions are given, with examples, so that the teacher or pupil should have little difficulty in understanding what has to be done.

Supplementary Learning Materials

In the early stages, it is essential that the teacher develops, produces, and makes a collection of all kinds of supplementary materials in order to aid learning. The books in the series can only serve as a base from which to work, and it is the teacher’s job to reinforce this work with appropriate exercises, materials, ideas, worksheets, games, and above all, efforts to try and create the proper atmosphere and environment in which real progress can be made. Supplementary materials include charts, worksheets, flash cards (words, pictures, sentences), matching cards, games, and various pieces of apparatus involving the manipulation of letters or words in order to help pupils learn how to spell or how to use a structure. All these items will help pupils to revise and reinforce what has been learnt in the textbooks. They offer great scope for the teacher to approach certain lessons from an entirely different angle and will help to occupy the pupils’ time constructively. Slow learners as well as those who are quicker can benefit greatly from using these materials.

In the later stages, the use of additional learning materials may not be felt to be so necessary for every pupil in the class. However, there will be instances when you will find that certain pupils need extra help or additional practice in order to understand a particular lesson. It is here that supplementary learning materials can be most useful. Many learning materials and games are already available. It is hoped that some materials may be developed as part of this learning package. Many of the materials can easily be made, quite inexpensively, by teachers themselves. For a list of materials and how to make and use them in class, please see the Teaching Guide for the Primers A and B.

In addition to the above-mentioned supplementary materials, rhymes, poems, and songs are an important part of speech and ear training. The detailed notes for Primers A and B suggest where you might introduce various rhymes during the course of the year. Teachers should ask the pupils to listen to the rhymes and teach them the words so that the rhymes can be learnt and repeated. Obviously, learning these rhymes will take time but this will be time well spent.
2. Teaching English

The Pupils

Before you start using the books and materials of this English course, here are some important points to consider about each of your pupils.

- What is the background of the pupil?
- Is English spoken at home on a regular basis?
- Is the pupil a second-generation learner? (Have the parents received some kind of education?)
- Does the pupil come from a home where books and magazines are available and where the other members of the family read?
- Does the pupil come from a home where there are educational toys, a radio, TV, newspapers?
- Does the pupil have any difficulty related to sight, speech, or hearing?

These are only some of the questions you might ask about your pupils. Your answers will determine where you have to start, what pace to go at, and what work must be done in order to get the best out of your pupils. Here are some constructive steps you can take in order to teach English more effectively at the primary level.

Using the Teaching Guide

This course is a complete learning package and the intention of this Guide is to help you to use the package effectively. There is a Teaching Guide for each level and each will provide many ideas that can be used and developed throughout the course. Please be sure to read the detailed notes and teaching suggestions in the Guide.

Using the Student Books and Workbooks

The books have been especially designed for pupils from a Pakistani background. They try to bridge or, to some extent, narrow the gap between complete beginners, those whose mother tongue is not English and who do not speak any English at home, and those whose home environment involves the use of a considerable amount of English. As all pupils do not learn at the same speed and some topics or structures are more difficult to grasp than others, it may be necessary for the teacher to backtrack, revise, spend a longer time over certain stages, or even skip out or race through certain exercises where necessary. The teacher should feel free to adapt and amend and not stick too closely to all the suggestions made in this guide, if that is going to restrict his/her teaching in any way. For example, if time is limited, the first set of comprehension questions in most exercises may be answered orally—only selected questions may be given for written work.

Using Materials

Use as many materials as possible. If your pupils do not have reading and writing materials at home, you should try to provide them in class. As mentioned above, textbooks are useful tools but they are not the only materials you should use. Supplementary reading materials, charts, wall displays utilizing pupils' written work and drawings, flash cards of various kinds, and games, all support the learning process.

By using and displaying materials, your pupils will have plenty to look at, think about, and talk about. Fast learners will reinforce what they have learnt, and slow learners will have the opportunity to approach the same topic from a different angle.
Do create a small library of supplementary reading materials within the classroom. The textual matter in the Student Book is limited; it is not sufficient to develop the habit and love of reading.

Planning

With careful planning, you can vary your lessons, allocate sufficient time to every aspect of learning English, and introduce new and interesting ideas and activities which will make your classes lively and interesting. The Teaching Guide will prove an invaluable tool in this process. Sample lesson plans have also been included at the end of each unit in each Guide. It is not necessary to follow them rigidly. Vary them for interest according to your requirements.

Activity

Make sure that your lessons are active. Varied activities will help to generate enthusiasm and enjoyment in the classroom. Boredom will not be an issue if you introduce varied, interesting activities.

Dynamism

Make sure that all your lessons are dynamic. It is only if you are enthusiastic and dynamic that you can inspire your pupils to put in their best efforts, work hard, and learn something. If you are dull and sound bored by the whole process, your lack of enthusiasm will transfer to the pupils. Their lack of enthusiasm will make your task more tedious.

Atmosphere

Try to create an atmosphere in class that is conducive to learning. This may be done on two levels—the physical and the psychological. To improve the physical atmosphere, make sure your classroom is an interesting place to be in. Desks arranged in rows and nothing but bare walls will not help. Make your classroom exciting and attractive, full of interesting things.

On the psychological level, try to create an atmosphere in which pupils are not fearful or intimidated. If the work is interesting and stimulating and the atmosphere is relaxed and peaceful, much more can be accomplished.

Speaking in English

Make sure you use English at all times in the English class. Do not use the pupils’ mother tongue to explain meanings or to give instructions. Understanding will only come through constant and open dialogue in the classroom, between the teacher and the pupils. Use English naturally and whenever possible, and expect the pupils to use it too. You will be surprised how quickly and easily incidental language is picked up by the pupils.

3. Pre-reading

Time spent on pre-reading activities will greatly benefit the potential reader, so do not rush this stage. The exercises and suggestions here should be followed in the first few weeks of school and should be continued with even after work in the textbook has begun.

Listening and Speaking skills

These skills relate directly to the pupils’ ability to listen to, decode, and understand words and sentences spoken in English, and the ability to repeat or utter words, phrases, and sentences in a meaningful and clear manner.
Points to consider:

- Can the pupil hear sounds properly? (Is his/her hearing impaired in any way?)
- Can the pupil tell from which source a particular sound is emanating? (Show the pupil pictures—a horn, a bell, a drum—and listen to a recording of these sounds.)
- Can the pupil distinguish between one sound and another heard at the same time? (Clapping and instrumental music; baby crying and person singing; a number of musical instruments being played at the same time.)
- Can the pupil distinguish between loud and soft sounds?
- Can the pupil understand simple instructions?
- Can the pupil repeat simple words, phrases, rhymes?
- Can the pupil repeat simple stories in his/her own words?
- Does the pupil come from a background where English is spoken frequently?

You can organize activities in class which will greatly help the pupils not only to hear sounds, but to listen to sounds with concentration and understanding. For such exercises, a CD player will prove useful.

Here are some activities to develop listening and speaking skills.

1. Talk about objects and events, naturally and as often as possible.
2. Give the pupils the opportunity to speak English whenever possible. Listen attentively to what they have to say and encourage them to speak by asking questions.
3. Use English all the time; try not to use the mother tongue. If the pupil is from a non English-speaking background, he/she will need to hear English spoken quite often.
4. Give clear instructions at all times; pronounce all your words properly (to the best of your ability).
5. Tell stories, recite poems, sing songs, and get the pupils to learn these and repeat them. Encourage the pupils to learn some tongue-twisters. (Very often pupils repeat or recite rhymes and poems at the top of their voice; there is no need for this! Teach them to speak and sing in a natural way.)
6. Play various games which involve the use of listening or speaking skills. (‘I-spy’, finding rhyming words, making up stories, guessing games, miming and describing actions, etc.)
7. Use a CD player to play music and songs to the pupils.
8. Use a tape recorder to record and play back the pupils’ own voices.
9. Provide pictures and books for pupils to look at so that these can act as a stimulus for conversation.

English is spoken all over the world so there are many different accents. It is not essential that English should be spoken in one particular accent. As long as the speaker’s utterances are easily understood by anyone listening, the ‘accent’ is not important. Obviously care must be taken to pronounce words in the correct way, otherwise the meaning may not be clear. For example, there is a considerable difference in the meaning of the words cheap, chip, and ship. The use of ch for sh, or a long vowel sound for a short one, may cause confusion, unless the context is absolutely clear.
Here are some words and sounds that might cause confusion if they are not pronounced properly:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>bag/beg/back</th>
<th>rode/wrote</th>
<th>ear/year</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>chip/cheap</td>
<td>vary/wary</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>day/they</td>
<td>shoe/chew</td>
<td>his/is</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>put/foot</td>
<td>part/pot</td>
<td>heart/hot</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

There are many other confusing pairs of words. Concentrate on the clear pronunciation of all consonants, consonant blends, and vowel sounds. Distinguish especially between long vowel sounds and short ones. When in doubt about the proper pronunciation of a word, consult a good dictionary. A good dictionary will also tell you where to put the stress or accent in a word.

Visual Skills

This skill relates directly to the pupil's ability to recognize, decode, and understand words and sentences written in English.

Points to consider:

- Can the pupil see properly? (Is his/her sight impaired in any way?)
- Can the pupil distinguish between one colour and another?
- Can the pupil already read letters/words in another language?
- Can the pupil recognize writing (as opposed to pictures)?
- Does the pupil come from a home in which books, magazines, and other reading/picture materials are available?
- Can the pupil recognize and understand simple visual symbols? (e.g. an arrow, indicating direction.)

Prior to reading, it is essential that pupils are given the opportunity to develop certain visual skills which will make the task of ‘real reading’ much simpler for them later on.

Bare classroom walls will in no way help the pupils to develop visual skills! Make sure your classroom walls are always covered in interesting pictures, words, and sentences. Replace the materials often, in order to maintain the pupils' interest.

Visual skills consist of matching, sorting, orientation, discrimination, sequencing, completion, and recall. Refer to the Teaching Guide for Primers A and B for further details.
Motor Skills
These skills relate directly to the pupil’s ability to combine sight and muscular control in order to use a pencil or other implement to draw or write words and sentences accurately.

Points to consider:

- Does the pupil have any physical defect which makes writing difficult?
- Does the pupil come from a home where others write, and where writing materials (pens, pencils, colours, paper) are readily available?
- Is the pupil more comfortable using the right hand or left hand, when writing (or drawing, or doing other tasks)?
- Can the pupil write any words in another language?

There are many activities that can greatly help hand-and-eye coordination. Some of these include the threading of beads, colouring, drawing, tracing, drawing around shapes (or templates), cutting out shapes or pictures with a pair of scissors, playing games (throwing dice, moving counters, holding cards, rolling marbles, using tiddlywinks, etc.), pasting pictures in a scrapbook, doing jigsaw puzzles, using a needle and thread to make samplers (sewing), copying pictures, painting, completing dot-to-dot pictures, doing mazes, constructing simple structures from a variety of materials (card, paper, cotton reels, sticks, string, matchboxes, etc.), and modelling with clay or play dough.

Remember that before the pupil begins to write letters and words, he/she should have heard the word spoken, said the word and used it in a meaningful way in a sentence, and read the word, either on its own or in a sentence. At the pre-reading stage, however, activities may incorporate the use of many skills at one time.

Many of the motor-skill activities are contained in the Workbook, but due to certain constraints (mainly of space available) they have been limited. Teachers should provide the pupils with ample opportunity to develop these skills even after work in the textbook has been started. Use lots of craft activities to develop hand-and-eye coordination. Remember that all the skills described above can be developed across the curriculum: don’t confine the use of English to the English period alone!

4. Reading
The early preparation for reading has already been outlined in the chapter entitled Pre-reading.

In order to become a reader, the pupil must be aware of shapes, be able to recall stories and poems, and have a considerably wide vocabulary in English. Above all, the pupil must be sufficiently motivated and must want to read. Forcing someone to read, especially when the person is not ready to read or finds the task difficult, may only put off the potential reader.

The potential reader must be given opportunities to develop pre-reading skills and must be encouraged to read. Encouragement may be given in a number of ways. First, provide the pupil with books to read. These may be picture books with very few or no words in them. If you provide the pupils with books and read stories to them, you will show them that books are useful and interesting, and that they are worth reading.

Build up a collection of books in the classroom. Some books may disappear or be spoilt, but if they do not exist in the first place, the pupils will never learn how to use them or handle them with care. Remember that reading with fluency, accuracy, enjoyment, and understanding cannot be achieved by reading one textbook. The skill of reading and an interest in reading can only be developed properly by allowing the reader to read and enjoy a number of books.
Checklist

The vocabulary and structures used in the Student Books are carefully controlled and graded. If the Student Books are used in conjunction with supplementary readers and other reading books provided by the teacher, the pupils should have no difficulty in learning to read. With the phonic skills learnt in Primers A and B, the pupils should be able to tackle new material with ease. However, some pupils may experience certain difficulties in reading.

The reading checklist contains items that cover the first few years of reading.

5. Writing

Writing is a laborious activity for the pupil; it is not a natural activity. Writing involves many skills: the pupil must first be able to recognize that certain shapes form letters, and that these letters represent particular sounds; when the letters are put together they form words, pronounced in a particular way; these words have meaning.

Only when the pupil has made some headway in oral work and in reading should he/she be encouraged to write. ‘Writing’, prior to this stage, should involve the use of implements to draw, colour, scribble, make shapes, and copy in order to develop fine motor skills and eye-hand coordination.

Writing requires strong motivation and a great deal of practice on the part of the pupil. So, do not expect too much at first. The teacher should try to make the activity as exciting and attractive as possible, and offer lots of encouragement. The writing of endless lists of words will not help to enthuse the pupils or make them want to write more than is absolutely necessary. Varied activities and tasks, which include drawing as well as writing, should help to motivate the pupils.

Remember to write clearly yourself and do not join letters when writing on the blackboard. If you do not take care to write neatly, your pupils cannot be expected to write neatly either!

The Workbooks are designed to give pupils the opportunity to develop their writing skills. But, due to limitations of space, further writing tasks should be set by the teacher. The section entitled Supplementary Learning Materials and suggestions and answers contain suggestions for further writing activities.

It is a good idea to supply each pupil with a copywriting (handwriting) book as well as a notebook for writing practice. There are a number of good copywriting books available. Make sure that the one you use is compatible with the Student Book and Workbook of this series. For example, it is no use supplying the pupils with a copywriting book that introduces capital letters before lower-case letters!

Make sure that writing is always neat and that each letter is formed in the correct way from the start. Undoing a bad habit can take a long time so make sure from the very start that the letters are written properly. Later, the pupils should take care to produce work that is not only legible, but grammatically and structurally correct. Where necessary, point out mistakes made in spelling and punctuation, but do this with care. If a pupil produces work that is full of mistakes, covering the page with corrections in red ink may discourage the pupil. Correct serious mistakes, but also take note of the other mistakes being made and plan a course of remedial action.

Give pupils the opportunity and encouragement to try and write creatively. Quite often, exercises based on work in the Student Books do not allow much scope for creativity or imagination. In many instances, however, this is possible if you use your own judgement and good sense to alter, adapt or improve on exercises that have been set. Creative writing does not mean that pupils should abandon the rules of writing correct English. Creativity can come from the use of original ideas put in a novel way, but which also observe all the prescribed rules of good grammar and syntax.

Remember that pupils like to have their work appreciated and admired. Ensure that the work of each pupil, at some stage during the year, is displayed for all to see. If a pupil produces a particularly good piece of writing, correct it, get the pupil to rewrite it neatly and perhaps illustrate it. You can then mount it and display it on a board in the classroom. Change the works on displays regularly so that the display board becomes a constant source of attraction and inspiration.
6. Structures

Lists of structures are given in the Contents’ list for each book. Structures are presented in a graded manner throughout the series. These are introduced at an appropriate level and then revised at a later stage, in the same book or perhaps in the next.

Teachers should be aware of the structures being introduced, but it is not imperative that these are drilled, unless it is obvious that the pupils do need the practice. Do not spend too long on one structure; pupils soon learn the correct formula and can get all the answers right. These are better learnt over a long period of time with constant usage in a meaningful context—for example, in general conversation in class, or through a game.

Take note of recurring errors when the pupils speak amongst themselves or to you. There is no need to correct these errors every time they are made in general conversation, but if you are aware of the mistakes that are being made, you can put these right by ensuring that the pupils making the mistakes practise the correct drills at an appropriate time later on.

Here is a basic list of structures for use in the early stages of learning English. They are not in any particular order of introduction. Many additional structures will be used in oral work.

Please consult the Guides for the levels below and above this one. They may contain ideas and suggestions that could be adapted and used in preparation of lesson plans for the Units at this level. For example, the Guide for the Primers contains a number of ideas about supplementary materials that can be made and used in class, and the words of over 70 songs, rhymes, and short poems.
Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Choose the correct answer:
   a. By being charitable.
   b. Harmony.
   c. Haq-al-Laila.

This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   d. During Ramadan, especially helping the poor and needy by following the example of Hazrat Muhammad ﷺ, is a display of human kindness and generosity at its best.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

Synonyms

1. Use a thesaurus to find synonyms for these words.
   a. Support.
   b. Tranquility.
   c. Give out / spread.

Prefixes

2. Do you know what these prefixes stand for?
   en- (enrich, enable) – stands for ‘within, in’.
   un- (unlikely, unsuitable, unable) stands for ‘not’.
   in- (incorrect, inability, inaccurate) stands for ‘in, on, or not’.
   dis- (dissatisfied, disappear) stands for ‘apart’.

3. Copy the prefixes and words into your notebook. Add more words to each list.
   Ask students to copy prefixes from question two and find more examples of the given prefixes from the internet. The answers may vary. All answers would be correct.

C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Punctuation

1. Add punctuation marks and capital letters to the following paragraph Asim was very happy because he had kept his first fast. His mother had promised to make delicious food in iftar. All day his father encouraged him, he said that Asim would be able to make it till maghrib in iftar. Asim felt pleased his mother said that he had done a brave thing.
Participles

2. Fill in the blanks in the following: the first one has been done for you.
   b. showed, shown  c. went, gone  d. cheated, cheating
   e. streamed, streaming  f. heard, hearing  g. said, saying
   h. spread, spreading

3. Use all the words in the end columns in sentences of your own.
   Ask students to compose sentences using the words from question two. Tell them some words that stay the same in past tense, for example: hit, hurt, cost, bet, cut etc.

Articles

4. Add articles to the following where necessary. Note that not all the blanks require an article.
   Once upon a time there lived a king who was a fine man. The kingdom he ruled was very large and all people who lived in it were happy and prosperous. One day a great flood of water came pouring down on the mountains and swept away the palace and most of the city. Many of people were drowned but the king sent his army and carried everyone to some high ground. In this way he saved many people from death.

5. It is important to listen to the sound of the word and use the correct article. You know that you use ‘a’ for words that start with a consonant sound and ‘an’ for words that start with a vowel sound. There are some words that you need to look out for because they start with consonants that sound like vowels or vowels that sound like consonants!
   a. Ask students to pronounce words that begin with a consonant but sound like a vowel for example: honour, honest, etc. And words having vowels that sound like other vowels, for example: Europe, eustasy, etc.
   b. Explain that the article ‘the’ is usually pronounced as ‘thuh’.

D. LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Imagine you are at an Iftar event. Do the following role play activities with your classmates:
   Engage students in roleplay on greeting people during Ramadan and Eid.

2. What food do you eat during Ramadan? What special foods are your favourite? Talk about these questions in a small group.
   Discuss what do students eat during iftar. Encourage them to share their favourite food. Ask about the foods in Lebanese iftar as given in the text. You can use (stuffed grape leaves, tabbouleh, fattoush, and hummus)

3. Find out about a special dish or meal that is eaten in another country during a festival.
   Compare and discuss with students how a Pakistani iftar is different from those in other countries, for example: Turkey, Egypt etc. You can show pictures of various cuisines like kunafah, gullac, etc.

E. COMPOSITION

Do you remember learning about letters, cards, and notes? Talk about invitations, notes, and letters (page 148) in class.
Ask students to write thank-you and invitation cards to friends and family. Encourage them to be as creative as they can. The students can also decorate their cards.
Workbook

A SYNONYMS

1. Choose synonyms from the box below for the following words.
   a. near       b. concealed       c. performer
   d. work       e. work           f. weighty
   g. tough      h. bald           i. choose

B HOMOPHONES

1. Choose words from the box and fill in the blanks. Look in the dictionary if you want.
   a. heel, heal.       b. bear, bare.
   c. dye, die.         d. piece, peace.

C PUNCTUATION RULES

1. Punctuate the following sentences and write them correctly.
   a. ‘I don’t know what to do,’ said Nazia.
   b. ‘Where is Rehan?’ asked Saima.
   c. The book, the pencil, the card, and the pen are all on the table.
   d. ‘Phew!’ exclaimed Anila. ‘That was a tough test’.
   e. Salman, Hina, and ‘Arif’s friends are going to New York.

2. Read the rules for using capital letters. Not all of them are correct! Put a (✓) against the correct rules.
   a. ×        b. ✓        c. ×        d. ✓        e. ✓        f. ✓        g. ✓

3. Write the letters of the correct rules here. There are five.
   b, d, e, f, g.

D PAST PARTICIPLES

1. Can you complete this table?
   ate rose, risen bite, bitten

2. Look at the pictures. With the help of the clues, write sentences.
   a. by the girls
   b. The tree was blown off by the wind.
   c. The rat was torn off by the rats.

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The Shandur polo pitch is located in Shadur, a place near the border between Chitral, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, and Gilgit, Gilgit-Baltistan.
   b. The current Shandur polo pitch was built in the year 1936.
   c. The first polo pitch in Shandur is said to have been built during the time of King Ali Sher Khan Anchan.
   d. Every year, from the 7th to the 9th of July, Shandur polo festival is held where polo teams of Gilgit and Chiral compete with each other.
   e. The sections in the polo games are called ‘chukkas’.
   f. The players always wear helmets with chinstraps, faceguards, protective pads, goggles, and mouth guards for safety, during the game.
   g. Other than the games, the visitors also enjoy the scenery and other festival attractions.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   It has been called hockey on horses and it might be the world’s oldest team sport.
   a. Polo.
   b. It called hockey on horses, because the players ride horses and use long polo sticks called mallets that look similar to hockey sticks.
   c. There are 4 players in a team for an official polo match and 6 players in a team for a Shandur polo match.

3. The following pictures show a series of events. Write a few sentences about them.
   Guide the students on how to compose sentences using pictures given in the student book.

B. WORKING WITH WORDS

Adjectives

1. Sort the adjectives below into four groups. The words in each group should have similar meanings to each other.
   aged, ancient, antique, elderly, old big, giant, huge, large, massive little, small, tiny navy-blue, sky-blue, turquoise

2. Underline the adjectives in the following sentences. Label the type of adjectives used. The first one has been done for you.
   b. The Pakistani jockey wore his green riding jacket. (Adjective of colour)
   c. Horses have long flowing manes. (Adjective of size)
d. Six large new tents were on the flat green field. (Adjective of colour)
e. The flag was red, yellow, and blue. (Adjective of colour)

C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Nouns

1. Underline the nouns in the following sentences.
   a. Once upon a time there was an old man called Ramiz.
   b. One day he took his dog and went to the forest.
   c. Suddenly out of the bushes came a fierce tiger.
   d. Ramiz was afraid, but his dog feared no man or creature.
   e. It took one step towards the tiger and barked.
   f. Ramiz stood with his back against a tree.
   g. Soon the tiger ran into the forest.
   h. Ramiz went home and told his wife about their brave pet.
   i. ‘Well done!’ she said in a loud voice, and the dog wagged its tail.

Connecting

2. Conjunctions are used to join sentences or parts of sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, and because. Put suitable conjunctions into these sentences. Find conjunctions in paragraph six of the passage.
   a. The players wear helmets and goggles.
   b. The players change horses because they get tired.
   c. People can buy food and they can listen to music.
   d. It is warm in the summer but there is still snow on the mountains.

Using ‘who’ or ‘which’

3. Join the following sentences with who or which. Remember, that we usually use who for people and which for things.
   a. This is the dog which has a strange name.
   b. This is the bin which the dog tipped over.
   c. This is the teacher who told the boys to be quiet.
   d. These are the children who are throwing water at us.
   e. This is the fence which they looked over.
   f. This is Mohid who lives next door.
   g. This is the cat who comes into our house every night.

D. LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Your teacher will dictate the following words. Listen carefully, say the words aloud, and then write them down. They are all from the story you have read. Mark the stressed syllables. Then say the words aloud again.

Help students differentiate between the stressed and unstressed syllable. You can use words from the student book as examples.
2. Put the words that begin with vowel sounds in a list in alphabetical order. Check your spelling!
   Check spellings of the words given in question 1.

E. COMPOSITION

Write an interesting paragraph about the rules of a sport. Make sure your first sentence clearly introduces the topic of your paragraph.

Help students write a paragraph on sport rules. Encourage them to use the internet to find material for their paragraph. They can use pictures to describe their findings as well.

Workbook

A NOUNS, VERBS, AND ARTICLES

Some nouns, verbs, and articles (a, an, the) are missing from the passage below. Choose suitable words from the box and fill in the blanks.

The captain’s horse was strong and fast. It had a bright shiny coat and a long tail. The tail was wrapped in an orange ribbon. The captain held on tight as the horse raced across the polo field, chasing the ball. The captain swung his mallet and hit the ball straight into the goal. The crowd cheered loudly.

The nouns are: captain, horse, tail
The verbs are: cheered, raced, hit
The articles are: a, an, the

B THIS, THAT, THESE, THOSE

1. Fill in the blanks with this, that, these, or those.
   a. that  b. That, this  c. These, those  d. This/That
   e. these  f. That  g. Those  h. that
   i. those  j. this  k. those

C POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

1. Make your own sentences using these words.
   The pupils will attempt the question on their own.

D PARAGRAPHS

1. Look at the pictures below. Write two paragraphs in your notebook about each picture. The questions below will help you to think of what to write.

   Oral: Discuss each picture; they are not connected in any way. Choose the main idea or theme of the picture and stick closely to that idea—do not digress too much. Let the children suggest possible ideas as to who the characters are and what they might be doing.

   Writing: Two simple paragraphs are to be written about each picture. The questions in the box will help.

   Explain a little more about paragraphs, and read with the pupils a paragraph or two from any book. Try to find out what each paragraph is about.
William Wordsworth wrote a great number of poems. Pupils might like to hear some other poems about nature. Read some to them, without too many explanations. Allow them to read poems too.

More about Wordsworth:
For a full list and the words of Wordsworth’s poems:
http://www.everyypoet.com/Archive/Poetry/William_Wordsworth/william_wordsworth_contents.htm

Do the pupils know what a cuckoo looks like? It is a bird, but what type? Ask them to find out about some other birds. They have already read about an owl and sparrows, and now a cuckoo and thrushes. Let them find out about other birds too, and find a picture of a cuckoo. More about cuckoos:
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cuckoo
Discuss the unfamiliar words and use them in sentences.

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The stars are appearing by twos and threes.
   b. The birds have not stopped their singing; they are ‘piping yet’.
   c. The little birds are among the bushes and trees.
   d. Little birds piping, a wind that is rushing, water that is gushing, and the cuckoo’s sovereign cry can all be heard.
   e. The cuckoo’s cry fills the sky.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.
   f. They are appearing like this because although the sun has set, there is still light in the sky. As the sky gets darker, more stars become visible.
   g. The cuckoo’s cry is loud enough to ‘fill’ the sky and so seems superior to the other sounds.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the poem.
The little birds are piping yet
   a. ii. the birds are still piping even though it is late
   b. It is evening.
   c. Among the bushes and trees.
   d. Little birds, a cuckoo, two thrushes.

3. Note down the rhyming words in the poem.

4. Do the rhyming words form a pattern?
   Point out that the rhyming is in the odd lines and even lines (for the first four lines), then an odd fifth line, which happens to rhyme with the next two lines. The last four lines are rhyming couplets. The scheme or pattern is:
   a b a b — c — c c d d

5. Find the odd one out in each of the following lists.
   Look for sound patterns, especially in the vowels. The odd ones in each list do not rhyme with the others.
   a. eat   b. peace   c. bushes   d. neigh
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Use these words in sentences of your own.
   Pupils will write their own sentences. You might like to read all the responses for c. among, and check that the sentences are correct.
   Note: between is used for two, and among for more than two. When exactly two things are referred to, then between is the only option. (The war between one country and another; the choice between good and evil.) When more than two entities are mentioned, we use among. (The children of the class shared the sweets among themselves.) Pupils will learn to use the terms correctly in time.

2. Use these words in oral sentences of your own. If you are not sure of the exact meaning, look in a dictionary.
   Each word describes a particular way in which liquids flow. Some of the words may be used equally well in the same contexts (flow/pour). The water poured/flowed out of the pipes and into the fields. However, we would not say: The rain flowed down yesterday. We would say: The rain poured down yesterday. Pupils should look up all the words, write definitions, and even draw pictures of water, trickling, dripping, spouting, spurting, flowing... from a pipe, if they can. Encourage more than one pupil to give an example of a particular word used in a sentence. In this way, all the various examples can be compared.

   Telling the time
   Talk about telling the time. Give them more examples of the time from a twenty-four-hour clock and using a.m. and p.m. before getting them to do the exercises.

3. Write the time using a twenty-four hour clock.
   a. 1500 hours b. 0600 hours c. 1600 hours
d. 1930 hours e. 1700 hours f. 2200 hours

4. Write the time using a.m. and p.m.
   a. 12:15 p.m. b. 10:45 p.m. c. 09:15 a.m. d. 4:45 p.m.

5. Look at these watches and clocks. Notice where the hands are pointing on each clock.
   12.15 – 2.30 – 9.10

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Punctuation

1. Can you write out the paragraph clearly? Separate the words and put a full stop at the end of each sentence.
   Pupils should achieve something like this:
   A long time ago people wrote without putting any breaks between words; this made reading very difficult. You can see what I mean from this example. It is better to separate the words and sentences.

2. Each of these words is written in two different ways - as one word and as two words. Which is the correct way of writing them? Put a tick against them.
   Football - classmate - homework

3. Saucepan is a compound word, which is formed when two different words, “sauce” and “pan”, are joined together. Break up the following compound words into the words they are made of:
   back stage - day dream - hand made
4. Underline the verbs in the following.
   a. Once upon a time there was a man who lived in a village.
   b. One day, in the forest, he was chopping down a tree for his fire.
   c. He felt very hungry in the afternoon and wanted some food.
   d. Suddenly, he saw a black cloud coming towards him.
   e. Heavy rain poured down and the man took shelter under the tree.
   f. Then he noticed the fruit in the tree and ate some.
   g. When the rain stopped, he picked up his axe and went home.

Note that pupils should be aware that all the verbs tell us what happened or what was happening in the past. They are all in the past tenses. Some verbs consist of more than one word (is sitting, was playing, did see).

But what happened next? Perhaps the pupils will tell you what they think?

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen and repeat the following verse quickly and clearly, and
2. Listen to the following. Then say the sentences aloud.
   Pupils can have fun trying to say these tongue-twisters without making a mistake.
3. Listen to these words. The underlined words are consonants clusters. Say them aloud, and
4. In a group of four, prepare a presentation of the poem. Make up actions for each line. You can also use sounds in key places. In your group, read the poem aloud with the actions and sounds. Practise until you have learned the poem.
   Help the pupils in saying aloud the specific sounds of the consonant clusters in each word. For the presentation task, help them recite the poem aloud with actions. They can use the onomatopoeia words in the poem: rushes – gushes, to make the sounds of the word while they’re performing.

E COMPOSITION

Create a class display about birds.

There are two parts to the task. If you have time, set the pupils the questions as a research task (keep it simple by giving each/some pupils one of the simple questions). You could get the pupils to cut out bird shapes on coloured paper and write out the questions, answers, and their descriptions on the cut outs before using these to form a display.

Workbook: pages 5–8

A YET AND ALREADY

Read the sentences and talk about the uses of yet and already. The pupils will be familiar with yet from the work in the textbook.

He has not finished his homework yet. (Up to now, he has not finished his homework.)
He has already finished his homework. (He finished his homework before we expected him to finish it.)

1. Use yet or already in the blanks below.
   a. They have already had their lunch.
   b. We do not know if he has arrived yet.
   c. Haven’t you taken the dog for a walk yet?
d. The children have already put away their books and pencils.

Did you notice where the word yet was placed in the sentences?
Discuss this. Pupils may remember that ‘yet’ may be placed either before the verb or at the end of the sentence. Whereas yet normally refers to present and future circumstances, already normally refers to something that is in the present or recent past. It is mainly used in questions and affirmative sentences and usually expresses surprise that something has happened sooner than expected.

Pupils will make up their own sentences.

B SPELL AND WRITE

Oral: None, apart from some explanation about the use of a dictionary. (See Ex. C.) Do ensure that the pupils use a dictionary to look up the meaning of words and to find spellings. It is easier for them to ask you, and quicker that way, but they will never learn to use the dictionary properly and efficiently if you do not allow them this opportunity. In the title, is it right?

1. Arrange these lists in alphabetical order. First find the word that does not fit in the list, and cross it out.
   The odd words appear in bold.
   a. Colin Hasan Mariam Nick Quetta Zaid
   b. any bank every few lots only some
   c. basket bell bison boat bring bullet bus

2. Write the opposites of the following.
   a. big (large) b. light c. hot d. dark (unfair) e. blunt
   f. dim (dull) g. out h. under i. poor

C USING A DICTIONARY

1. Find these words in a dictionary. See how fast you can do it. Write down the meaning of each word.
   a. giraffe: African four-legged, leaf eater with spotted skin, and a long neck.
   c. stag: a male deer.
   Ask the pupils to look up other words, too, and to write definitions.

D A CROSSWORD

Across
1. When you are tired you... down. LIE

8. The opposite of worst.

E DO YOU KNOW WHY?

Oral: Ask questions based on the same pattern, and ask the children to change the questions. Note how the form of the verb changes.

1. Change these questions in the same way.
   a. Do you know where the post office is?
   b. Do you know what the postmaster’s name is?
   c. Do you know where the postmaster lives?
   d. Do you know what the postmaster does?
   e. Do you know when the postmaster comes to the office?
   f. Do you know when he goes home?
   g. Do you know where his children go to school?
   h. Do you know why the postmaster is so happy?

William Wordsworth wrote a great number of poems. Pupils might like to hear some other poems about nature. Read some to them, without too many explanations. Allow them to read poems too.

More about Wordsworth:
For a full list and the words of Wordsworth’s poems:
http://www.everypoet.com/Archive/Poetry/William_Wordsworth/william_wordsworth_contents.htm

Do the pupils know what a cuckoo looks like? It is a bird, but what type? Ask them to find out about some other birds. They have already read about an owl and sparrows, and now a cuckoo and thrushes. Let them find out about other birds too, and find a picture of a cuckoo. More about cuckoos:
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cuckoo

Discuss the unfamiliar words and use them in sentences.

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   - a. The stars are appearing by twos and threes.
   - b. The birds have not stopped their singing; they are ‘piping yet’.
   - c. The little birds are among the bushes and trees.
   - d. Little birds piping, a wind that is rushing, water that is gushing, and the cuckoo’s sovereign cry can all be heard.
   - e. The cuckoo’s cry fills the sky.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.
   - f. They are appearing like this because although the sun has set, there is still light in the sky. As the sky gets darker, more stars become visible.
   - g. The cuckoo’s cry is loud enough to ‘fill’ the sky and so seems superior to the other sounds.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the poem.
   The little birds are piping yet
   - a. ii. the birds are still piping even though it is late
   - b. It is evening.
   - c. Among the bushes and trees.
   - d. Little birds, a cuckoo, two thrushes.

3. Note down the rhyming words in the poem.
4. Do the rhyming words form a pattern?
   Point out that the rhyming is in the odd lines and even lines (for the first four lines), then an odd fifth line, which happens to rhyme with the next two lines. The last four lines are rhyming couplets. The scheme or pattern is:
   a b a b — c — c c d d

5. Find the odd one out in each of the following lists.
   Look for sound patterns, especially in the vowels. The odd ones in each list do not rhyme with the others.
   a. eat  b. peace  c. bushes  d. neigh

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Use these words in sentences of your own.
   Pupils will write their own sentences. You might like to read all the responses for c. among, and check that the sentences are correct.
   Note: between is used for two, and among for more than two. When exactly two things are referred to, then between is the only option. (The war between one country and another; the choice between good and evil.) When more than two entities are mentioned, we use among. (The children of the class shared the sweets among themselves.) Pupils will learn to use the terms correctly in time.

2. Use these words in oral sentences of your own. If you are not sure of the exact meaning, look in a dictionary.
   Each word describes a particular way in which liquids flow. Some of the words may be used equally well in the same contexts (flow/pour). The water poured/flowed out of the pipes and into the fields. However, we would not say: The rain flowed down yesterday. We would say: The rain poured down yesterday. Pupils should look up all the words, write definitions, and even draw pictures of water, trickling, dripping, spouting, spurting, flowing… from a pipe, if they can. Encourage more than one pupil to give an example of a particular word used in a sentence. In this way, all the various examples can be compared.

Telling the time
   Talk about telling the time. Give them more examples of the time from a twenty-four-hour clock and using a.m. and p.m. before getting them to do the exercises.

3. Write the time using a twenty-four hour clock.
   a. 1500 hours  b. 0600 hours  c. 1600 hours
   d. 1930 hours  e. 1700 hours  f. 2200 hours

4. Write the time using a.m. and p.m.
   a. 12.15 p.m.  b. 10.45 p.m.  c. 09.15 a.m.  d. 4.45 p.m.

5. Look at these watches and clocks. Notice where the hands are pointing on each clock.
   12.15 – 2.30 – 9.10

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Punctuation

1. Can you write out the paragraph clearly? Separate the words and put a full stop at the end of each sentence.
   Pupils should achieve something like this:
A long time ago people wrote without putting any breaks between words; this made reading very difficult. You can see what I mean from this example. It is better to separate the words and sentences.

2. Each of these words is written in two different ways - as one word and as two words. Which is the correct way of writing them? Put a tick against them.
   Football - classmate - homework

3. Saucepan is a compound word, which is formed when two different words, “sauce” and “pan”, are joined together. Break up the following compound words into the words they are made of:
   back stage - day dream - hand made

Verbs

4. Underline the verbs in the following.
   a. Once upon a time there was a man who lived in a village.
   b. One day, in the forest, he was chopping down a tree for his fire.
   c. He felt very hungry in the afternoon and wanted some food.
   d. Suddenly, he saw a black cloud coming towards him.
   e. Heavy rain poured down and the man took shelter under the tree.
   f. Then he noticed the fruit in the tree and ate some.
   g. When the rain stopped, he picked up his axe and went home.
   Note that pupils should be aware that all the verbs tell us what happened or what was happening in the past. They are all in the past tenses. Some verbs consist of more than one word (is sitting, was playing, did see).
   But what happened next? Perhaps the pupils will tell you what they think?

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen and repeat the following verse quickly and clearly, and
2. Listen to the following. Then say the sentences aloud.
   Pupils can have fun trying to say these tongue-twisters without making a mistake.
3. Listen to these words. The underlined words are consonants clusters. Say them aloud, and
4. In a group of four, prepare a presentation of the poem. Make up actions for each line. You can also use sounds in key places. In your group, read the poem aloud with the actions and sounds. Practise until you have learned the poem.
   Help the pupils in saying aloud the specific sounds of the consonant clusters in each word. For the presentation task, help them recite the poem aloud with actions. They can use the onomatopoeia words in the poem: rushes – gushes, to make the sounds of the word while they’re performing.

E COMPOSITION

Create a class display about birds.

There are two parts to the task. If you have time, set the pupils the questions as a research task (keep it simple by giving each/some pupils one of the simple questions). You could get the pupils to cut out bird shapes on coloured paper and write out the questions, answers, and their descriptions on the cut outs before using these to form a display.
Workbook:

A YET AND ALREADY

Read the sentences:
He has not finished his homework yet. (Up to now, he has not finished his homework.)
He has already finished his homework. (He finished his homework before we expected him to finish it.)

1. Use yet or already in the blanks below.
   a. They have already had their lunch.
   b. We do not know if he has arrived yet.
   c. Haven’t you taken the dog for a walk yet?
   d. The children have already put away their books and pencils.

Did you notice where the word yet was placed in the sentences?
Discuss this. Pupils may remember that 'yet' may be placed either before the verb or at the end of the sentence. Whereas yet normally refers to present and future circumstances, already normally refers to something that is in the present or recent past. It is mainly used in questions and affirmative sentences and usually expresses surprise that something has happened sooner than expected. Already is usually in mid position in the clause.

2. Make three sentences of your own using the word yet, and three sentences using the word already.
Pupils will make up their own sentences.

B SPELL AND WRITE

Oral: None, apart from some explanation about the use of a dictionary. (See Ex. C.) Do ensure that the pupils use a dictionary to look up the meaning of words and to find spellings. It is easier for them to ask you, and quicker that way, but they will never learn to use the dictionary properly and efficiently if you do not allow them this opportunity. In the title, is it right?

1. Arrange these lists in alphabetical order. First find the word that does not fit in the list, and cross it out.
The odd words appear in bold.
   a. Colin Hasan Mariam Nick Quetta Zaid
   b. any bank every few lots only some
   c. basket bell bison boat bring bullet bus

2. Write the opposites of the following.
   a. big (large)  b. light  c. hot  d. dark (unfair)  e. blunt
   f. dim (dull)  g. out  h. under  i. poor

3. Find these words in a dictionary. See how fast you can do it. Write down the meaning of each word.
Pupils will find the meanings from the dictionary.

C DO YOU KNOW WHY?

Oral: Ask questions based on the same pattern, and ask the children to change the questions. Note how the form of the verb changes.
1. Change these questions in the same way.
   a. Do you know where the post office is?
   b. Do you know what the postmaster's name is?
   c. Do you know where the postmaster lives?
   d. Do you know what the postmaster does?
   e. Do you know when the postmaster comes to the office?
   f. Do you know when he goes home?
   g. Do you know where his children go to school?
   h. Do you know why the postmaster is so happy?

This adapted extract from the beginning of Great Expectations is a great opportunity to introduce the pupils to Charles Dickens, the greatest writer of the Victorian era. The pupils may be unfamiliar with aspects of the setting so spend some time explaining where the events take place and talking about the characters and events as you read. In this way you can prepare the pupils for the comprehension questions and ensure that they appreciate the story. To set the scene, you may want to talk about what life was like in the past before beginning. Pip is scared of the convict and his actions; read the story with expression to convey this.

While Reading: Let pupils answer and point out details about why Pip would conclude that the man is an escaped convict: the iron chain on his leg, his ragged appearance, etc.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.

   a. The setting of the story is in a marshy area, down by the river, a few miles from the sea.

   b. Pip’s full name was Philip Pirrip. (Not that easy to pronounce!)

   c. Pip lived in his sister’s house with his sister and her husband, the blacksmith, Mr Joe Gargery.

   d. Pip started to cry in the graveyard one day because he realized that he was an orphan and felt sad. He is also made to feel sad by the grey land and sky.

   e. The convict told Pip to get him a file and some grub (food).

   f. The convict wanted to meet Pip early the next morning at the Battery.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.

   g. The convict picked Pip up and put him on top of a gravestone. He turns Pip over and bends him backwards while holding on to him. He threatens Pip by saying that another man is hiding with him and that he will attack him and eat his innards!

   h. We know that the convict was cold and hungry because he was shivering, his teeth were chattering (probably due to his wet, ragged clothes) and because he asked Pip to bring him some food. The final paragraph contains descriptions that convey that the convict was cold. We also learn, at the start of the story, that it was a cold, grey day.

   i. Pupils will give their own opinions as to whether or not there was another man hiding with the convict. Ask them to give reasons for what they think. It is likely that he tells Pip this because he wants to make sure that Pip is too frightened to tell anyone about him.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the story.

   The man jumped and made a short run, but then he stopped and looked over his shoulder.

   a. The convict.

   b. He thought that Pip’s parents were close by.

   c. He realized that Pip was pointing to the gravestones which had his parents’ names on them.
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Find the correct meanings of the following in a dictionary. Write the words and meanings in your notebook. Note that the words may have more than one meaning.
   a. iron : (n.) a strong, hard, grey metal
   b. safe : (adj.) protected from danger or risk
   c. present : (adj.) occurring now
   d. danger : (n.) the possibility of suffering injury or harm
   e. fail : (v.) to not do something or to be unsuccessful in doing something
   f. tuck : (v.) to push in loose pieces of cloth (such as a bed sheet) to make it tidy or comfortable
   g. tilt : (v.) to move into a sloping position
   h. hugged : (v.) squeezed tightly
   i. file : (n.) a tool with a rough surface used for shaping a hard metal
   j. creep : (v.) to move slowly or carefully in order to avoid being noticed

2. What are these words? You will find the anagrams in the story.

   Easy:
   a. said b. what c. went d. stone e. name
   f. live g. times h. arms i. file j. came

   Not so easy:
   a. roasted b. clothes c. heart d. tombstone

   Challenge: Let pupils come up with their own ideas for how the story continues.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Adjectives

1. Underline the adjectives in the following.
   a. young b. good, clever c. old, new d. forgetful, loud
   e. thoughtful, poor f. metal, shiny g. spare, kind

Phrases and adjective phrases

Explain with further examples. Make sure that the examples are not clauses (with a finite verb). Ask the pupils to suggest some phrases; discuss each, and point out any that are not phrases because they contain a finite verb.

2. Say which of the following, on page 29, are phrases. Note that the punctuation has not been included.

The phrases are: a. over the fence d. in a dish e. now and then
   g. three or four j. good and bad

The others all contain a finite verb and are clauses.

3. Add suitable adjective phrases to the following.

Pupils will compose their own sentences; make sure that adjective phrases are added, not clauses.

E.g. b. This is a shirt that I bought yesterday. (Because this addition contains a finite verb, bought, it is a clause and not a phrase.) This is a shirt with a blue and white collar. (Adjective phrase describing shirt.)
D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. What will Pip do, and why?
   Divide the class into groups. Appoint a chairperson for each group (the CONTROLLER) and give them a few minutes to choose which item they are going to speak in favour of, and to note down valid points that are made to support their view. The speaker need not be the chairperson. When a presentation has been made, a member from each of the other groups should ask questions in turn. The questions may be answered by other members of the speaker’s group.

2. Go back to exercise D.3. on page 21 (A Night in June). Find two words to add to each row.
   Match the sound of the three consonants in a row! Remember that you can use a dictionary to find the words that begin with three consonants.
   Help the pupils with using a dictionary for finding words that start with the same consonant clusters as those in exercise D.3. on page 21 (A Night in June). Pupils will have to locate words with the following consonant clusters: th, sp, sc, st, sq, ght (ending position).

E COMPOSITION

Think of a time when you have been frightened. Was it something you saw or watched? Did something or someone make you jump? Write about it.
Discuss this first. Allow pupils to share stories and ask them questions to draw out what was frightening, how they reacted, etc. Often when we are made to jump we end up laughing about it. Give an example first if you like. Example: hearing a noise in the kitchen, imagining it to be made by a burglar or intruder, and creeping in to see what it is only to discover it is a pet cat! Encourage them to use suspense (as in this example) or threat (as in the passage).

Workbook:

A ADJECTIVE

1. Underline the adjectives in the following:
   a. He is an adorable baby.
   b. They live in a beautiful house.
   c. He wore a yellow shirt.
   d. She bought an expensive handbag.
   e. He is strong and muscular.
   f. The girl wore a shiny necklace.
   g. At the circus, we saw an elephant.

B LEARNING WORDS

1. Which adjectives and nouns given below are commonly used together? Put a ✓ in the correct column.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>building</th>
<th>person</th>
<th>beard</th>
<th>film</th>
<th>knife</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) Pakistani</td>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------</td>

<td>------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(c) difficult</td>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>✔️</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(d) real
(e) expensive

2. Here is a list of the parts of a motor car. Write the number of each part in the circle connected to that part. You may have to check the meanings in a dictionary. You may mention other parts, too: wheel, tyre, wipers, sidelights, bumper, number plate, fuel cap, etc. Pupils may look in a dictionary to find the meaning of the words hub, radiator.

a. A car radiator contains water to cool the engine.
b. A hub is the centre part of a wheel.

3. Did you look in a dictionary to find the meanings of words you didn't know? Answer the questions below.

a. What is a radiator?
b. What is a hub?
Pupils will find the meanings from the dictionary.

C TRIPLETS

1. Make oral sentences of your own about the three girls in the picture below. Use the words given in the box. Discuss the pictures. Use the structures: same as/isn't the same as/different from.

2. Write sentences about the three girls. Use the same as and the word in the brackets.

a. Maham’s cat is the same as Naima’s.
b. Maham’s hair is the same as Reema’s.
c. Maham’s bag is the same as Naima’s.

3. Use isn’t (aren’t) the same as in three more sentences about the girls.

a. Reema’s hair isn’t the same as Naima’s.
b. Maham’s blouse isn’t the same as Reema’s.
c. Reema’s shoes aren’t the same as Naima’s.

4. Use different from in three more sentences about the girls.

a. Reema’s bag is different from Naima’s.
b. Maham’s watch is different from Reema’s.
c. Reema’s earrings are different from Maham’s.

The Storyteller

A poem about the pleasure of listening to stories when young. The use of the past tense indicates that this is a memory. The speaker remembers the great stories told by ‘him’—so great that they are still told today (final stanza). The punctuation needs to be taken note of when reading the poem so that the feelings of wonder and affection are conveyed. Discuss words and the meanings conveyed. For example: cuddled in bed—seems like they are comfortable, warm and cozy; hugged by the bed, awe—means respect and wonder/fear, fables of yore—yore is an old fashioned word, fables often had morals, conveys a sense that the stories were full of wisdom, phantoms—ghosts/things imagined; again, the idea of learning from an elder through their stories is conveyed because the phantoms only occur if they’d not prayed. Cover the questions while talking about the poem before the pupils do any writing.

Suggestions and answers

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The stories were told at the end of the day.
   b. We know they are comfortable and at ease because they are bathed, well fed and cuddled in bed.
   c. Fables of yore are stories from a long time ago. Look up the word fable (see below).
   d. The shadows would creep when they were asleep and the phantoms would appear when they had not prayed. Perhaps the poem is suggesting that the stories would affect their dreams.
   e. Now the children (now grown up) tell the stories to their families (young and old).
   f. These are some of the clues in the poem which tell us that the stories were really good: The exclamation mark at the end of What stories he told the children! shows that they were awesome/exciting/good. They listened in awe. They repeat them still—we repeat things we find interesting/like. stories of gold—conveys the idea that they are precious.
   g. Pupils will say whether they think they are frightening or not. Ask them to support their view. Accept both interpretations. Some of the stories are about shadows that crept and phantoms which could seem like frightening subjects. However, the phantoms play and the children sleep soundly so maybe the stories contain moral messages that are not frightening to good children. Pupils may also bring up the use of the word awe in stanza 2 and the chill that is still felt (stanza 4) as evidence that the stories were frightening.
   h. Pupils will say whether they think the storyteller was good or not. Ask them to support their view. The last stanza states that the children repeated the stories long after they were first told, so this could imply that the storyteller was a good one.

2. More questions!
   a. Use a dictionary to look up the words. Discuss the differences. A story is an account of people and events, real or imaginary, told for entertainment. A fable is: a short story, typically with animals as characters, conveying a moral; a story, typically a supernatural one which includes elements of myths and legends.
b. Get the pupils to pick out verbs (tired, play, cuddled...). Many of these verbs describe feelings, sensations and actions that are to do with being still—they are appropriate for a poem about memory, listening, feeling, and sharing. Comment on the use of adjective phrases too.

c. Can the pupils identify the a, b, b, c, c, a rhyme scheme?
   children/then, day/play, fed/bed, wide/side, awe/yore, crept/slept, played/prayed, chill/still, old/gold

3. Answer the questions about this line from the poem.
   If first they'd not prayed!
   a. The children.
   b. Phantoms would come out to play; shadows would creep.
   c. They feel a chill.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Find words in the poem that rhyme with the following.
   a. old/gold/told  b. fables  c. tired  d. feel
   e. prayed/played  f. repeat  g. fed/bed  h. cuddled
   Discuss which words have a similar spelling pattern and which ones do not. Do they know any words which sound exactly the same but have different spellings: pray/prey; rain/rein/reign; pain/pane; vein/vain, etc.

2. Put the following in alphabetical order.
   Addison, Arain, Blyton, Bond, Chughtai, Dickens, Dryden, Farooqui, Gabol, Gardner, Keats, Shakespeare, Shelley, Siddique, Webster
   Surname: the name that identifies somebody as belonging to a particular family

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Exclamations

1. Find an exclamation in the poem about the storyteller. Make three exclamations based on the poem. Write them in your notebook.
   Note that exclamations often start with what is normally regarded as a 'question word' (what, how). ‘What stories he told the children!’ is an exclamation. ‘What did he tell the children?’ (with a different intonation) is a question. Exclamations also begin with pronouns: My aunt! My goodness! You fool!
   Make up three exclamations based on the poem.
   What a frightening story! How sweet! What a comfortable bed! I wish I could listen to that story! etc.

Using Commas in No/Yes

2. Give short answers to the following questions. Each one must start with No.
   a. No, I cannot/I can’t.
   b. No, she will not/she won’t.
   c. No, I do not/I don’t.
   d. No, it does not/doesn’t.
   e. No, I did not.
   f. No, I have not/I haven’t.
   g. No, he has not/he hasn’t.
   h. No, she is not/Isn’t.

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen to the following carefully and repeat aloud.
   Pupils will enjoy saying these tricky sentences. Check that they are pronouncing the words clearly and correctly.
2. Sometimes when you hear one word, you immediately think of another. Write down the first word you think of when you see the following words. The first one has been done for you. Pupils will think of their own words. Discuss the words they have chosen and ask what the connection is. Here are some examples:

- a. doctor patient
- b. engine driver (train)
- c. school uniform (bus, work…)
- d. beautiful lady (star, colourful)
- e. exciting goose pimples (joy)
- f. house work (points, home…)
- g. hospital doctor (sick, ill)
- h. tiger animal (fierce, roar, stripes)
- i. jeep engine (driver, truck…)
- j. cruel mean (ugly, frightened)
- k. sleep snore (rest, dream)
- l. mangoes fruit (juicy, green…)

What words did you choose and why? Discuss.

Pupils will find that they came up with completely different words (in some cases). Encourage pupils to explain any strange connections that they have made.

E COMPOSITION

If you were the storyteller, which scary story would you tell?

Ask pupils to first think about what scary stories they know. Share a few ideas and get them to make some notes about the plot, characters and setting before they write a short version of the story. Creating a word bank of effective vocabulary might also help. If time is short, writing an effective opening to a scary story will be sufficient.

Workbook:

A NO, NO, NO!

Write suitable questions for these answers.

Some suggestions. Pupils will write their own questions.

- a. Has he done the work?
- b. Can she come to the party?
- c. Are they going to Multan?
- d. Are they eating biscuits?
- e. Did Parvez sing?
- f. Can I see it from here? (Can you see it from there?)
- g. May they go out to play?
- h. Is it good?
- i. Should I go out in the snow?

B ABBREVIATION

Read the example and give the pupils additional sentences in direct speech to turn into indirect or reported speech.
1. Match the words in A with the abbreviations in B.
   Abbreviations are short forms.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>B</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mister</td>
<td>St</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Street</td>
<td>Rd</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doctor</td>
<td>Dr</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saint</td>
<td>St</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Road</td>
<td>Mr</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   Sometimes we write short forms for names.
   Examples: Zahid Khan Z. Khan
   John Foster Dulles J.F. Dulles

2. Write these names using short forms.
   a. G B Shaw
   b. C Dickens
   c. Pupils will write their own name.

C WRITING STORIES

Oral: Read and discuss. Build on their experience of writing a scary story for this unit in the textbook.

Use the ideas on this page and write your own story in your notebook.

The children can be asked to write a longer outline before they actually start to write their story.

While Reading: Pupils will give their own views. Ask them to give reasons for their opinions.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The witch’s name was Five. She did not like it because all through her life people had laughed or looked surprised when they heard that was her name.
   b. The witch was stirring her big cooking pot and saying a spell in her garden.
   c. Anansi was pleased because he heard the witch and he thought he would be able to use her spell to make some money or get some food.
   d. The first animal that Anansi tricked was Mrs Rabbit.
   e. Miss Frog and Mrs Shrew were not fooled by Anansi.
   f. At the market you could buy yams, beets, pulses, grains, sweet potato, pies, and mouth-watering delicacies. Pupils may find some or all of the items listed.
   g. Mrs Shrew was going to the market to try to sell the pies she had made. She wanted to buy some mouth-watering delicacies for her family at the market.
   h. Anansi got angry with Mrs Shrew because she would not say the number 5.
   i. There are six characters in the story: the witch, Anansi, Mrs Rabbit, Mr Duck, Miss Frog, and Mrs Shrew. The families of Mrs Shrew and Anansi are also mentioned.

This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   j. Pupils can pick out any of a range of clues which tell us that Anansi was not a nice spider: he is a trickster; he scowls; his first thoughts upon hearing the witch are that he can use it to his advantage; he is dishonest; he tricks nice characters; he does not share his food; he does not think about his family, and he gets angry when things do not go the way he wants them to.

2. Fill in the blanks with suitable words from the story.
   a. difficult    b. peeked    c. delicious
   d. scurrying    e. nearest    f. grinned

3. Answer the questions about these lines from the story.
   ‘1. 2. 3. 4, and this one that I am sitting on.’
   a. Mrs Shrew
   b. Mounds of earth
   c. Mrs Shrew avoids saying the number 5. She was not a fool; she guesses that Anansi is trying to trick her; she knows he wants her to say all the numbers, so she does not do it.
   d. Anansi gets so cross that he says the number and disappears.

Challenge: The moral of the story is that greed will bring you trouble. We could also say that causing trouble for others brings you trouble. Pupils can express this in their own words.
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. See if you can find the answers to the following descriptions. Unscramble these four words to use in the spaces.
   a. doctor       b. nurse (doctor)      c. teacher       d. dentist

2. Who are the following people? Write three or four sentences like those above about the people shown below.
   Allow the pupils to write their own sentences, so that you can then ask what professions they have chosen to write about. Recall the words for professions they have learnt already (see the notes in this TG for Unit 1, Workbook, Ex. B.) How many more can they think of?

3. The opposites of these words are all in the story. Find them.
   The words below are from the story. Pupils may also think of alternative synonyms that could be used alongside these. E.g. difficult, hard, troublesome, etc.
   a. difficult  b. furthest  c. kind      d. pleased  e. disappeared
   f. hated      g. high       h. heavy    i. unpleasant

Punctuation
Go over the text with the pupils, and look for examples. Some may be found in the story. Ask the pupils to find an example of a full stop and a comma. Write, ‘Do it again. Say all the numbers!’ on the board. Show how this can be changed to: ‘Do it again; say all the numbers!’ Also show how semicolons can be used in a list. E.g. At the market, there were men with baskets and sacks; women with babies and bags; and children and old people with chickens and ducks. Note how the semicolon here is used to separate the items in a list.

4. Separate these sentences using semicolons, commas, and full stops. (Don't forget to start each new sentence with a capital letter.)
   a. He shot an arrow; they just watched.
   b. They were good archers; he was good at everything.
   c. The dog did not die; it could not bark or eat.
   d. I have two brothers, Noman and Khalid; he has a sister, Ayesha.
   e. We like to swim every day; she does not.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Adverbs
Choose suitable adverbs from the box to add to the sentences given below.
Pupils will choose suitable adverbs for the sentences. Remind them that an adverb is a word that tells us something more about an action. Adverbs describe how actions are done. Many adverbs end in -ly. Some adverbs do not. Adverbs can be formed from adjectives.

quick → quickly (add -ly); happy → happily. (change y to i and add -ly); true → truly. (drop e and add -ly) Discuss their choices. Check for correct placement and agreement of tense. Alternatives are possible but here are some suggestions for possible placement—the adverbs in each example should not all be used together! Yesterday can be used with all of the sentences in the past tense. Tomorrow can only be used with e.

a. Yesterday, he swiftly/carefully wrote a letter to his sister.
   b. He bravely faced the tiger, which was swiftly leaping angrily at his throat.
   c. The man with the bad leg slowly/painfully climbed the mountain track.
   d. The arrow flew smoothly/straight through the air at the target.
e. I am going to my father’s house tomorrow/immediately.
f. The man with the bundle shouted loudly/angrily at his donkey.
g. The girl danced beautifully/gracefully, but did not sing at all.
h. The boy sped straight down the steep road on his cycle.

Writing questions

Change the following into questions.
a. Can a salesman travel far?
b. Does Sodium Benzoate have a particular smell?
c. Are the hotel’s rooms expensive?
d. Is the cash drawer full of notes?
e. Is Sibi a place in Balochistan?
f. Are the salesman’s goods offered at a discount?

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

What are my initials?
Pupils should mark the relevant squares. After the squares have been marked, they can be joined together to form a letter. (The letters to be formed are: M and S, but the pupils should find this out for themselves.) Ask pupils what they think the letters stand for.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The 1st letter of my first name.</th>
<th>The 1st letter of my surname.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>M s t g e</td>
<td>U 4 g T '</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>F t 9 A b</td>
<td>7 , Q w z</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>g H T Y 4</td>
<td>R M . d +</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

E COMPOSITION

Write a conversation between Anansi and one of the animals he tricks. Try to give each character at least five lines of dialogue. Set it out in the form of a play script.

Write the example on the board and take some suggestions to add to it. Some students will be able to use this as their starting point while others may be able to choose another character from the story.

Workbook:

A BAKER OR JUDGE

1. What do we call the people who do the following?
   Discuss what these people do. Mention other jobs as well.
   a. typist    b. artist    c. coalminer    d. hairdresser (barber)
   e. player    f. farmer    g. owner     h. potter
   i. window-cleaner    j. butcher
2. Fill in the blanks with suitable words from the box.
   a. judge  b. optician  c. model  d. umpire
   e. reporter  f. grocer  g. cashier  h. jockey

B ADVERBS

Oral: Perform various actions and describe them.
I am walking to the door. How am I walking?
I am walking slowly. Now I am walking to the desk.
I am walking briskly. Now I am racing across the floor.
I am walking quickly. etc.

Spelling: Write various words on the board and ask the pupils to add -ly to form adverbs, e.g. rough, pretty, sincere, fair, bright, secret, shady, boring, tremendous.

1. Add suitable adverbs to the following from the box.
   a. bitterly  b. promptly  c. soundly  d. quickly  e. truthfully

2. Form adverbs from these adjectives. Use five of them in sentences of your own. Write them in your notebook.
   a. luckily  b. proudly  c. shakily  d. equally
   e. noisily  f. successfully  g. jokingly  h. gently
   i. briskly  j. carefully  k. loudly  l. madly
   m. ably  n. nimbly  o. faintly  p. bravely

C FORMING QUESTIONS

1. Put the words into the correct order to form questions. Don’t forget to add a question mark at the end.
   a. Where did the children go yesterday?
   b. How old is his younger brother?
   c. Did they say when they could start the work on the building?
   d. Why has he not come to work three for days?
   e. What present did she give the child on his birthday?
   f. Who is the owner of that tall building?

D SO EASY

Oral: Use of so. Give the pupils adjectives and ask them to make up sentences using the adjective with so.

1. Make your own sentences. Use so... that in each one. Choose any adjective from the box below.
   Examples:
   a. The watch is (was) so expensive that
   b. The man is so old that
   c. The matchbox is (was) so cheap that
   d. The room is so quiet that
   e. The baby is so tired that
   f. The elephant is so heavy that
   g. The sun is so hot that
   h. The suitcase is so large that i. The man was so hungry that
   j. The radio was so loud that

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Uncle Rafi works in a travelling company.
   b. Aliyah and Aftab’s father went to shops to buy food for dinner.
   c. Mum and Uncle Rafi played sports when they were young. Now Mum walks regularly and Uncle Rafi climbs and treks mountains. Aliyah participates in swimming competitions and Aftab plays hockey. This is how they live a healthy lifestyle.
   d. Aliyah is adventurous like her uncle.
   e. The marks are ancient writing written by Buddhist monks. Uncle Rafi’s company is working with some people in this village to protect it. Aftab thinks these writings are graffiti.
   f. Aliyah has learned about the Tasman Glacier in school. It is in New Zealand and is still the biggest glacier even though it has been receding since the 1990s.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.
   g. Aliyah might be older than Aftab because she knows a lot of things. For example, she knows about the climate change and is also unafraid of mountain climbing. Aftab might be younger than Aliyah because he mistakes the ancient writings for graffiti and is worried when Aliyah tells him about the receding glacier and climatic change. He also asks Aliyah if she could fix it when she becomes a scientist.
   h. Aliyah says we are burning too much fossil fuel and putting too much carbon dioxide into the atmosphere. If we don’t start using wind or solar power, the glaciers will melt faster, the temperatures on earth will rise and the climate across the world will change.

   Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   a. Writings or drawings scribbled or scratched without permission on a wall or other surface in a public place.
   b. Aftab thinks the ancient writing is graffiti.
   c. Uncle Rafi’s company is trying to protect it because this part of Pakistan has been a home to lots of different cultures and is rich in history.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Use a dictionary to look up the meanings of these words.
   alpine - a plant or tree native to mountainous areas.
   avalanche - a mass of snow, ice, and rocks falling rapidly down a mountainside.
   anorak - a waterproof jacket, usually with a hood, of a kind originally used in polar regions.
   carabiner - a coupling link with a safety closure, used by rock climbers.
   glacier - a large area of thick ice that remains frozen because of accumulation of snow near n mountains or near the poles.
   ice pick - a tool used to break up, pick at, or chip at ice.
knot - a fastening made by looping a piece of string or rope and tightening it.
peak - the pointed top of a mountain.
summit – the highest point of a hill or mountain.

2. Use the words in sentences but add adjectives to make the sentences more interesting.
   Example: The amazing alpine air makes you feel alive!
   Students must find suitable adjectives to make sentences according the words mentioned above.

3. Complete this table of adjectives. Use the words in oral.

<table>

Students should be able to make up some oral sentences to show the difference in the degree of comparison of the given adjectives.

C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Fact and Opinion
A fact is something that is true. Facts can be proved. An opinion is something that someone thinks or believes.

1. Which of the following are facts and which are opinions?
   Snow is cold. (fact)  Snow is pretty. (opinion)  Eagles are grumpy. (opinion)
   An eagle is a bird. (fact)  Sea water is salty. (fact)  Lemonade tastes bad. (opinion)

2. Aliyah and Aftab have different opinions about the Husseini Suspension Bridge. What are their opinions?
   Aftab thinks the Husseini Suspension Bridge is wobbly and dangerous, he is afraid of walking on it.
   Aliyah thinks the bridge looks dangerous, but it might be fun to walk on it.

3. Look at the picture of the bridge again. Write down your opinions about it. Can you state some facts about it?
   Ask the students to come up with facts related to the Husseini Suspension Bridge and share them in the class.

D. LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Look at this map of Pakistan. Find places on it. Talk to your partner about where places are by using the compass directions.

Help students to find various interesting places on the map using a compass. You can use ‘Google Earth’ for further information on maps and places.
E. COMPOSITION

Find out some facts about a place that you have visited or that you would like to visit. Make a one-page travel advertisement for it. You will need to make the destination sound like a great place to visit, as well as including the facts. Carefully picking adjectives to describe the area will help you to advertise it.

Show students a travelogue sample for reference. They can also draw or use pictures to make their travelogue look catchy.

A WHAT’S THE OBJECT?

Look at the pictures, and read the text.

Oral: Go over the text with some explanations.

1. Put a line under the subject in the following.
   a. The boy asked a question.
   b. She went to the market.
   c. The children played under the old banyan tree.
   d. Rehan and Rida talked to the clown.
   e. The big brown bear climbed the rocky path.
   f. The man who sold me the bicycle is walking down the road.

2. Fill in the blanks with suitable subjects.
   Pupils will use their own words, but make sure the subjects are interesting ones. E.g. The neighbours woke me up with a scream. The squabbling neighbours woke me up with a scream. The woman told the boy to go home. The woman at the supermarket checkout told the boy to go home, etc.

B WHO DID WHAT TO WHOM?

1. Read and talk about the sentences below.
   Oral: A few examples of object (direct and indirect).

2. Underline all the direct objects in the following sentences.
   a. My father sang a song.
   b. The children danced a jig.
   c. My father lost an extremely valuable watch.
   d. My mother found a hundred-rupee note.
   e. The children spent the money.

3. Underline the direct objects and circle the indirect objects in the sentences below.
   a. He sent the box to his mother.
   b. She found a present for her husband.
   c. The man bought a carpet for himself.
   d. Moiz threw the ball to his brother.
   e. I gave the balloon to the child.
C STILL SHOUTING

Oral: Drill opposites. Give the class instructions to do the opposite of what you say.
E.g. Arif, stand up. (Arif keeps sitting.)
‘I asked Arif to stand up but he kept sitting.’
‘I asked Maham to close her left eye but she closed the right one.’
When you have drilled but, go on to use still hasn’t.
Arif still hasn’t stood up.
Maham still hasn’t closed her left eye.

1. Match the following and write them in the spaces provided.
   a. I told him to get up but he is still lying down.
   b. I told him to come quickly but he still hasn’t arrived.
   c. I told him to fix the car but he still hasn’t fixed it.
   d. He told her to read the book but she still hasn’t read it.

2. Look at the pictures given on the next page and make up your own sentences. Use the phrases that are given under the picture. Write the sentences on the next page.
   Examples:
   a. I told you to mend the vase, but it is still broken.
   b. I have been waiting for half an hour, but the bus is still not here.
   c. I want to use the telephone, but she is still talking.

D BETTER OR WORSE?

Oral: Some oral work with the comparative and superlative, using objects or pictures.
Remember to emphasize the use of the with the superlative— (the biggest, the grandest, the meanest).
Here are some spelling rules to follow when we add -er or -est.
Think of other examples for 1–5 below.
Revise the rules and ask pupils to suggest adjectives.

1. Try doing these.
   a. heavy heavier heaviest
   b. broad broader broadest
   c. fine finer finest
   d. lazy lazier laziest
   e. fat fatter fattest
   f. curious more curious most curious

E BIGGER AND BETTER

1. Write sentences of your own using the adjectives below.
   a. The first house is bigger than the second house.
   b. The second house is more beautiful than the first house.
   c. The second house was cheaper to build than the first house.
   d. The second house is older than the first house.
   e. The second house is better than the first house.
   f. The second house is more comfortable to live in than the first house.
   g. The second house is more interesting than the first house.
   h. The first house is more expensive than the second house.

Perhaps the pupils will be inspired by this to organize a variety entertainment show of their own.

While Reading: Let pupils share their impressions based on how the characters behave differently in class and what they elect to do for the variety show.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Mr Khan called the class together to make an announcement about a forthcoming variety entertainment.
   b. Daniyal thought he was going to scold the class; Feroz disagreed; Maham thought it would be good news.
   c. Mr Khan stared at Ali with a look that could kill because he was cross with Ali for interrupting.
   d. Pupils from other classes, members of staff, parents, and guests came to see the variety entertainment.
   e. Ali announced to the audience that he was going to make his dog disappear.
   f. Smokey leapt out of Ali’s arms to go after the biscuits kept under the table.
   g. The audience thought Ali’s trick was wonderful.
   h. Ali’s classmates did not know how the trick was done, until he told them the following day.
   i. The audience liked the show because they clapped and cheered loudly.
   This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   a. The audience liked the show because they clapped and cheered loudly.

2. Make a list of Ali’s classmates mentioned in the story. Against each name, write down what act they performed in the variety entertainment.
   Sadia: dance; Maham and Hania: mime; Yasir, Feroz, and Anjum: pop song; Daniyal: poem; Moin, Atif, and Sara: shadow play; Ali: magic show.

3. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   Everyone clapped as he walked on to the stage, wearing a green robe and a tall, pointed hat painted with stars and crescent moons.
   a. Ali
   b. He was performing on stage, at the variety entertainment, as a magician.
   c. He was going to make his dog, Smokey, disappear.
   Challenge: Get the pupils to gather some notes. Talk about Mr Khan’s comments and expressions. Examples: he smiles—he is friendly/nice; ‘Ahem!’ said loudly and he glowers—he can be strict and expects good behaviour (a look that could kill); he makes sure everyone is included—he asks Ali what he is going to do; what do the pupils make of his warning to Ali?
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. On the next page are some words taken from the passage. Write them in your notebook and then use a dictionary to find their meanings. Use them in sentences of your own.
   a. munching: chewing food purposefully; usually with a crunching sound
   b. allowed: given permission for something to happen or somebody to do something
   c. variety: collection of varied things; entertainment made up of different kinds of acts
   d. entertainment: something produced or performed for an audience
   e. favourite: much loved, most wanted
   f. applaud: clap, cheer, show approval
   g. vanish: to disappear from view
   h. gasped: breathed in with surprise or pain
   i. wriggling: small, quick twisting movements

2. Match the person to the descriptions of what they do.
   a. A shopkeeper is a person who manages a store and sells items.
   b. A holy (wo)man is a person who is very religious.
   c. A washer(wo)man is a person who washes clothes.
   d. A water-carrier was a person who transported water from wells to homes before pipes were common.
   e. A minister is a person who works in the government.
   f. A king/queen is a person who rules a country.
   g. A milkmaid/cowman is a person who looks after cows and milks them.
   h. A police officer is a person who prevents crime and keeps order.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Types of sentences

1. Write the following in your notebook. Say whether they are statements, questions, exclamations, or commands.
   a. command b. statement c. command d. exclamation e. question
   There are many examples of each to be found in the story. Ask the pupils to find some and to write some of their own.

2. Change the following statements into questions.
   a. Is my father coming with me to Murree tomorrow?
   b. Are we going by bus?
   c. Is the road very steep?
   d. Don’t I like travelling by bus?
   e. Shall we get there at 5.30?

Tenses
Explain with further examples.

3. Say which of the following are past, present, or future.
   a. past (went)
   b. present (is eating)
   c. future (will take)
4. Now use the following groups of words to form sentences in the tense shown in brackets. You will have to change the tense of the verb.
   a. I am eating an apple. (Also: I eat apples.)
   b. The two boys (will) go (are going to go) to school next term.
   c. My sister went to school. (Also: My sister was going to school, ... has gone to ...

5. Now make interesting sentences of your own using the following words.
   Pupils will make up their own sentences. Make sure the sentences are interesting.

6. When you have finished the exercises above, check if you have used the correct tenses.
   Check the pupils sentences to see if they have used tenses correctly.

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Ali interrupts Mr Khan. How do we apologise when we have made a mistake, been rude, or done something wrong or unpleasant? How do we politely ask for something or get someone's attention? Your teacher will collect some good suggestions on the board. Practise saying these polite phrases in pairs.

   Excuse me... Sorry to interrupt... Pardon me... I apologise for...

   Conduct a class discussion and gather ideas from pupils about some of the way to apologise to someone politely. Write these on the board and then have the pupils practise it with each other.

2. Work in a small group.

   The first person says, ‘My grandmother went to the market and she bought (something beginning with A, for example: an amazing apple pie).’ The next person has to repeat that and add an item beginning with B. The next person repeats all that and adds something beginning with C. Keep going until you get to Z!

E COMPOSITION

You have been asked to do your own act for a variety entertainment show. What will you choose to do? Write about it.

Pupils might like to make up a ‘programme’ saying who is going to do what. This can be discussed and produced in the form of a brochure, with illustrations and small biographical sketches of the ‘stars’. What about the advertising for their show? Can someone design a poster to attract an audience? There are a lot of useful language development exercises that can be initiated in class from this lesson.

Workbook: pages 19–22

A MR WASEEM AND MR NASEEM: PRESENT TENSE

Ask the pupils to:

   a. write a timetable.
   b. draw a picture of themselves.
   c. write a description of their daily routine.

1. Read about Mr Waseem and discuss the timetable.

   Oral: Some questions comparing the two timetables should be asked.
2. Answer these questions.
   a. Mr Waseem wakes up at six o’clock.
   b. Mr Waseem takes twenty-five minutes to walk to work.
   c. Mr Waseem drinks his tea at four o’clock.
   d. Mr Waseem plays tennis at half past five.

3. Now look at Mr Naseem’s timetable and ask your own questions.
   Encourage pupils to ask their own questions and for others to answer. Questions should refer to the timetable.

4. Write a similar paragraph about Mr Naseem.

   Sample paragraph.
   Every day Mr Naseem wakes up at nine o’clock. He runs to catch the bus at a quarter past nine. At half past nine he arrives at work. At a quarter to ten he eats his breakfast. Mr Naseem stops work at twelve o’clock (midday). He goes to the cafeteria for lunch at half past twelve. At half past one, he returns to work. He usually drinks tea at three o’clock. At half past three he goes home. By four o’clock he is watching TV.

B PRESENT TENSES

Oral: Deal with the text and give further examples.

1. Write sentences in the present continuous and the simple present.

   The basic answers have been given below, but pupils might add other words (as provided in the brackets for 1 and 2 below).

   a. I went to school yesterday.
      I am going to school (now).
   b. I ate my lunch quickly, (because I was late).
      I am eating my lunch quickly, (so that I can go out to play).
   c. My mother cooked the dinner.
      My mother is cooking the dinner.
   d. I did my work carefully.
      I do my work carefully.

C PREPOSITION: WHEN

1. Remove the full stops and join the sentences using when.

   a. Imran dived when he was six years old.
   b. Nadia swam when she was five years old.
   c. Maryam used a computer when she was five years old.
   d. Fahad rode a horse when he was seven years old.
   e. Emma read English books when she was six years old.
   f. Dan played hockey and football when he was nine years old.
   g. Dada drove a car when he was 18 years old.
   h. Dadi spoke Arabic when she was 16 years old.

D IF

Oral: Discuss the picture. Use if. Follow the sequence of possible events; if X happens then Y will follow as a consequence.
1. Answer the questions given on the next page using the clues given in the box.
   a. If the boy drops the stone, the dog will wake up.
   b. If the dog wakes up, it will chase the cat.
   c. If the dog chases the cat, it will climb the tree.
   d. If the cat climbs the tree, the mother bird will fly away.
   e. If the mother bird flies away, the babies will have no dinner.

From a Railway Carriage

Note that the poem is about a railway train rattling along the tracks; the poem should be read in such a manner that this motion and action is evident. The pace can be picked up at appropriate points in the rendition.

Discuss the notes about the poem and the unfamiliar words.

Robert Louis Stevenson (1850–1894) wrote a great number of poems and stories for children (as well as adults). For more information about the poet:

Pupils might like to hear more poems by Stevenson. You can find the text of some of his poems at:
http://www.poetryloverspage.com/poets/stevenson/stevenson_ind.html

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Bridges, houses, hedges, ditches, meadows, horses, cattle, hills, plain, painted stations, a child, a tramp, a cart, a man, and a river can be seen from the railway carriage.
   b. The train is ‘whistling by’; the stations are standing still.
   c. A tramp is a person who travels from place to place on foot in search of work or as a beggar.
   d. Brambles are prickly shrubs, especially blackberry shrubs. To gather brambles is to pick blackberries.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.
   e. The rhythm of the poem is fast-moving, just like a train running along at high speed.
   f. Pupils will make their own lists, from their own experience or imagination, before sharing ideas.
   g. A railway journey is very enjoyable. A person travelling by rail has a chance of seeing the natural beauty. The changing scenes fill a person with pleasure.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the poem.
   Lumping along with man and load;
   a. and b. The word suggests that the road is full of holes, the cart is going fast (and being bumped around), and the cart is full.
   c. From a railway carriage.
   d. The scenes are all seen fleetingly, as the train speeds along the track.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Make a list of all the words in the poem that describe movement.
   faster, charging along, through, fly, driving, wink, whistle by, clambers, scrambles, gathering, stringing, run away, lumping along, gone.
2. Make another list of words that describe sound.
   battle (obviously noisy), driving rain, whistle, lumping (suggesting bumping and falling into holes)

3. Write out the full form of the following abbreviations and use them in sentences of your own.
   a. Mistress/Missus
   b. Mister
   c. British Broadcasting Corporation
   d. Before Christ
   e. Anno Domini (in the year of our Lord)
   f. East
   g. West
   h. South
   i. North
   j. kilogram
   k. inch
   l. metre Pupils will make up their own sentences.

4. See if you can fill in the blanks in the following; the first one has been done for you.
   English French
   Pakistani Dutch Iraqi African Spanish Italian German Canadian Chinese American
   Also introduce other countries and ask the pupils to tell you the adjective formed from the name.

5. Write the singular of these nouns. The first one has been done for you.
   a. leaf
   b. wolf
   c. half
   d. child
   e. shelf
   f. life
   g. calf
   h. woman
   Discuss the spelling rules.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Pronouns

1. Underline all the pronouns in the following sentences about Joan of Arc.
   a. She lived in France many years ago.
   b. One day, another country attacked her beloved France.
   c. The soldiers came and burnt its villages.
   d. Joan met the General; she asked him for a horse.
   e. Then she rode it into battle.
   f. She beat the army which was attacking them.
   g. Unfortunately, many people did not like her.
   h. They thought she was a witch.

Adverbs

2. Underline all the adverbs in the following sentences.
   a. Shirin walked slowly down the street towards the river.
   b. She put her feet into the swiftly running water.
   c. ‘Oh!’ she said aloud, ‘it’s very cold!’
   d. Suddenly she heard someone shouting loudly down the river.
   e. She ran quickly along the bank.
Prepositions

3. Put suitable prepositions in the blanks in the following sentences.
   a. in  b. from, below  c. out of, down  d. in  e. at  f. up, at

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen to the sound ‘ed’ at the end of these words. Say the words.
   Explain to pupils the three sounds of ‘ed’ by saying out loud the words. Have them distinguish between the three sounds.

2. Read the poem aloud with a steady rhythm, like that of a train rattling along the tracks. Stress the sounds on the parts of the words in italics. Clap to keep the rhythm.
   Pupils will have fun trying to keep the same beat, especially when a large group is involved. They need not shout. They might like to form a line (imitating carriages) and march about the classroom, stamping their feet, left, right, left, right, while some pupils recite the poem aloud, and others keep the beat by clapping.

E COMPOSITION

Try to write a poem with a lot of movement in it.
   Pupils may like to make a list of appropriate words (and check the spelling) so that they have these to hand before they start composing their poem.

Workbook: pages 33–36

A PRONOUNS

1. Find the pronouns in the following. (There are 20.) Write out each pronoun and say whether it is singular (S) or plural (P).
   a. They told me that they were going to see the film. (3)
      They (P), me (S), they (P)
   b. I told them that I had seen the film already. (3)
      I (S), them (P), I (S)
   c. We have a lot of work to do; it has to be completed by tomorrow. (2)
      We (P), it (S)
   d. Can you tell her that they are from me and that I shall send her more tomorrow? (6)
      you (S/P), her (S), they (P), me (S), I (S), her (P)
   e. They made us laugh, speaking like that. (3)
      They (P), us (P), that (S)
   f. It is hot today; I shall stay at home, if you don’t mind. (3)
      It (S), I (S), you (S/P)

B ADVERBS

1. Add suitable adverbs of your own, and rewrite these sentences to make them more interesting. Where will you add the adverbs?
Pupils will add adverbs of their choice to the sentences. They may wish to refer to the list of adverbs they made in Unit 3, Ex. A.2. Discuss where the adverbs are placed (adverbs of manner usually placed after the verb they describe; adverbs of frequency are usually placed before the main verb). The pupils should be encouraged to change the wording to make the sentences more interesting.

Simple examples:

a. (Yesterday) The children chatted happily/loudly/excitedly on their way to the cinema.
b. The bubbly, blue water splashed noisily on the stones below the waterfall.
c. The crowd chanted excitedly/loudly when the stars (suddenly) appeared on the stage.
d. Animals often cry when they are hurt badly.
e. She spoke sternly to the boy who had sneakily taken her pencil without asking.

C PREPOSITIONS

1. Add prepositions in the blanks.
   a. in, at  b. in, at  c. on, in, at  d. from/to, at  e. on  f. at, with, on  g. in, from

Oral: The pupils should be able to do this on their own. You could go through the list in the box encouraging the children to supply names of things which produce each noise. You could also give them some instances where noise of some kind is produced and ask them to supply suitable words to describe the noise. E.g. a lorry getting stuck in thick mud—what kind of noise will the tyres produce? Show how sounds are onomatopoeic.

1. Fill in the blanks using the words in the list above.

   I hear the hoot of an owl,
   the patter of raindrops
   the trumpeting of an elephant, the ringing of a doorbell,
   the beat of a drum,
   the roar of a lion,
   the ticking of a clock,
   the slam of a door
   the buzzing of bees,
   the rumble of thunder,
   the toot of a horn,
   the clatter of horses’ hooves,
   the cry/howl of an animal in pain,
   the tinkle of tiny bells,

2. Use five of the expressions in interesting sentences of your own. Write them below.

   Pupils will write their own sentences: make sure these are more interesting than ‘I heard the bellow of a bull.’ Better: The bull bellowed loudly and sped towards us.

E SPEECH AND SPELLING

1. Read this aloud a few times.

   Pupils will read the rhyme and enjoy this tongue twisting poem. Focus on pronunciation.
2. Plural nouns
Choose (or ask pupils to suggest) random words, and ask others to provide the plural form. Also ask the pupils to write the plural form on the board, when a singular form has been suggested. Perhaps you can make separate boxes on the board, so that the words can be written in the correct boxes, depending on how they end (with -s or -es).

3. Add s or -es to the following words.
   a. shops  b. tails  c. branches  d. bats  e. pencils  f. peaches
   g. watches  h. bushes  i. months  j. gloves  k. wishes  l. dresses
   m. boxes  n. cars  o. books

4. Do you know the plural of these?
   a. oxen  b. women  c. men  d. children

5. Put a circle round the silent letters in the words below.
   KNIFE (k, e), OUGHT (gh), WEIGHT(gh), WEDNESDAY (the first d)

Workbook: pages 37–41
This test covers textbook and workbook units 1–6.

A READING

1. Read the poem aloud to your teacher.
   Listen for fluency and expression.

2. Answer the questions about the poem.
   a. The poet visited the house for a short while, ‘I stayed but a moment’.
   b. Tiptoeing husband; wife humming a lullaby; tiny cloth shoe; a little hat; picture book; a toy dog; bright faces of the couple
   c. The words used to convey that the father is being quiet are: ‘tiptoeing’ and ‘still as a mouse’. He is compared to a mouse (twice). Perhaps he is keeping quiet because the baby is asleep upstairs.
   d. Wife was humming; a look on the face of the mother, a pleased look; the faces so bright
   e. (Pupils will use their own words.) There must be a baby in the house because nothing else could be the cause of these things.

3. If someone suddenly arrived in your classroom (without passing through the rest of the building), how would they know it was a classroom? Make a list of the ‘evidence’ they might see.
   Pupils will make their own lists. Marks should be given for originality.
   E.g. desks in rows, teacher’s planner, textbooks, students in uniforms, etc.

B TEXTBOOK QUIZ

1. Give short answers to these questions.
   a. In a graveyard
   b. The children
   c. The teacher in the story called Variety Entertainment
   d. The places that the train passes
   e. A polo mallet and ball
   f. A night in June
   g. Five
   h. Gilgit-Baltistan

2. Give complete answers to these questions from your textbook.
   a. Ali was a student in Class 4 (Mr Khan’s class). During the Variety Entertainment, Ali performed a magic show in which he made his dog, Smokey, disappear.
   b. The Shandur polo festival is held in Shandur. Teams from Chitral and Gilgit compete every year.
   c. Mr Joe Gargery is Pip’s sister’s husband. He is a blacksmith.
C WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Write the plural form of the following.
   a. leaves   b. calves   c. shelves
   d. women   e. children   f. roofs

2. Write the meaning of each of these words:
   a. cable   a group of wires which carry electrical signals
   b. thrush   a type of bird
   c. doze   to sleep for a short time; a short sleep
   d. crescent   a thing which is curved, broad in the middle and tapered at the ends; the shape of the waxing or waning moon
   e. bough   a branch

3. Add suitable adjectives to the following, beginning with the letters given.
Pupils will write their own words; make sure these are adjectives.
Examples:
   a. silvery/shining/setting sun   b. interesting/illustrated/impossible story
   c. grocer's/garden/garment shop   d. train/terrible/tiring journey

4. Rewrite the following with the correct punctuation.
   ‘Well, Anansi.’ He said. ‘It is quite simple. Start with 1, then it’s 2, 3, 4, and 5!’ Mr Duck disappeared instantly.

D LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

1. Underline the objects in the sentences below.
   a. She sold me the painting for five thousand rupees.
   b. Saima gave her kitten a new collar.
   c. They took us to see the film on Tuesday.
   d. All my friends, including Nasir and Sara, have bought tickets already.

2. Write the opposites of the following.
   a. always
   b. disliked
   c. slowly
   d. came
   e. safe

3. Change the following into questions.
   a. Do chickens lay eggs?
   b. Are the eggs sold in the market?
   c. Is his shop in the town?

E COMPOSITION

Write two paragraphs (on a sheet of paper) about any of the stories you have read in your Textbook. Describe briefly what it is about, and then say why you like it.
Pupils may make their own choice. Make sure one paragraph briefly describes the story itself, and the other is a personal opinion or preference.

A Russian tale about a clever and wise lady.

While Reading: Pupils to come up with their own plans. Encourage them to be creative.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The Russian nobles were boasting of their strength, fame, wisdom, wealth, trusted horses, and themselves.
   b. The prince was angry with Stavr for saying that he (the prince) was no match for his wife, Katrina.
   c. Katrina took a band of thirty archers, thirty chessmasters, and thirty musicians with her to Kiev.
   d. The Greek ambassador wanted the prince to pay tribute, failing which he was to agree to let the ambassador marry his niece, Zabava.
   e. The prince thought that Katrina was a man because of the clothes (armour) she was wearing, and because she behaved like a man.
   f. Zabava was the niece of Prince Vladimir. She refused to marry the Greek ambassador because she thought he was not a man at all but a woman.
   g. Katrina got Stavr out of the dungeon by challenging the prince to a fight. The prince was frightened to fight, but when Katrina asked if there was no brave warrior in the dungeons to fight her, the prince remembered Stavr Godinovich, and had him brought out of the dungeon.

This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   h. Make sure that pupils give reasons for their answers. Suggestions:
      • Katrina and Stavr Godinovich—happy: they are both free and are laughing as they leave
      • Zabava—relieved/annoyed with the prince—she was crying when the prince ordered her to marry the Ambassador and the prince did not believe her when she said that the Ambassador was a woman
      • Prince Vladimir—shocked/defeated/embarrassed: he was wrong about many things, he knew he would lose against Katrina, he had been fooled by Katrina

2. Who do you think said or would have said the following?
   a. Stavr Godinovich
   b. Katrina
   c. The prince (and all the people of the kingdom)
   d. Prince Vladimir
   e. Stavr Godinovich

3. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   ‘You have gone too far this time.’
   a. Prince Vladimir said these words to Stavr Godinovich.
b. Stavr had told the prince that he (the prince) was no match for his wife, Katrina.
c. The prince ordered one of his guards to take Stavr away, throw him into the dungeon, and give him nothing to eat and drink except oats and water.

Challenge:

harp: a musical instrument that has many strings stretching from the top to the bottom of a frame. You play the harp with your fingers.
pardon: sorry, excuse me archer: a person who shoots with a bow and arrow at a target interrupt: to stop somebody speaking or doing something

Pupils will make their own sentences.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Match the following.
   Note that the second column contains defining relative clauses. These explain which person or thing is being talked about. These clauses are a kind of qualifier.
   a. This is the man who met me on the road.
   b. This is the map which helped me find the cave.
   c. This is the path which took me to the cave.
   d. This is the dog that guarded the cave.
   e. This is the treasure which I brought back to show you.

2. Find the meaning of these words. Then use them in sentences of your own.
   a. harp: a musical instrument that has many strings stretching from the top to the bottom of a frame. You play the harp with your fingers.
   b. pardon: sorry, excuse
   c. archer: a person who shoots with a bow and arrow at a target
   d. interrupt: to stop somebody speaking or doing something

Pupils will make their own sentences.

3. Use can or cannot in sentences to answer these questions.
   a. Yes
   b. Pupils will give their own answers.
   c. Yes
   d. Pupils will give their own answers.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Verbs

Underline the verbs in the following.

Once upon a time there was a crocodile who lived in the river. One day he was swimming along in the warm water. He felt very hungry that morning and wanted some food. Suddenly he saw a boy on the bank. The boy was fishing in the stream, and did not see the crocodile. The crocodile crept towards the boy.
Note that pupils should be aware that all the verbs tell us what happened or what was happening in the past. They are all in the past tenses. Some verbs consist of more than one word (is sitting, was playing, did see).

But what happened next? Perhaps the pupils will tell you what they think?

Subject and predicate

Explain with further examples.

1. Divide the following into subject and predicate.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Predicate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a. My father</td>
<td>climbed a very high mountain yesterday.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. My sister</td>
<td>went with him although it was snowing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c. My father</td>
<td>slipped on a rock and hurt his ankle.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d. My sister</td>
<td>bound up the ankle with a piece of cloth.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>e. She</td>
<td>helped my father to come down the mountain.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>f. Our family</td>
<td>was very glad to see them again.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Find the subject and predicate in the following.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Predicate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a. Old buildings and mosques</td>
<td>are to be found all over Pakistan.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. The man (who lives next door)</td>
<td>is my grandfather.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c. My father and mother and both my brothers</td>
<td>will attend the wedding.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d. She</td>
<td>does not live with her family.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>e. Aqeel and Tom</td>
<td>wrote to Faraz last week.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>f. The mangoes and guavas</td>
<td>have become ripe.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Your teacher will read you a short account of a strange creature called the Loch Ness Monster. Listen carefully, then answer the questions below.

Read the text given on pages 144–145 of the Student’s Book.

1. d. 2. a. 3. a.
4. A large, snake-like body with a long neck.
5. b.
6. People claim to have taken photographs, but the photos are fake.
7. The lake is too deep and dark for a camera to be used successfully.
8. They found no trace of a monster.

Work done by the pupils (writing and drawing) should be displayed for all to see. For more information, and a picture:

http://www.nessie.co.uk
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Loch_Ness_Monster

E COMPOSITION

What do you think the prince did after Katrina rescued her husband? Did he let them go, or did he try to regain his honour? Write about it.

Discuss this. Remember, there is no ‘correct’ answer. Pupils should use their imagination.
A  SUBJECT AND PREDICATE

1. Using the word in brackets, add suitable subjects to the following sentences.
   Pupils will use their own words along with the ones given. Examples:
   a. The injured soldiers washed themselves in the stream.
   b. The stolen necklace was found under a bush.
   c. The burning car could be seen a long way off.
   d. Older children are not allowed in the playground.
   e. My father married my mother in 2000.

2. Add suitable predicates to the following:
   Examples:
   a. These rotten apples were lying on the ground.
   b. Azhar, the businessman, called to see me today.
   c. The winning actors went up to the stage for their prizes.
   d. This rare diamond was last seen a hundred years ago.
   e. I have finished this exercise.

3. Underline the subjects in the following. Remember that the subject does not always come at the beginning of the sentence!
   a. We always stay at the same hotel in Lahore.
   b. It’s not often that we stay somewhere else.
   c. If you don’t come, we will leave without you.
   d. When is she arriving?
   e. She is never on time.

B  LETTERS

Oral: With the help of the board, describe the various letters—official and personal—that can be written. Don’t forget to talk about envelopes and how addresses should be written.

Look at the letter above. Notice the following things:
Discuss all the points noted, with reference to the letter.

1. Write a letter to your uncle telling him about the things you did during your school holiday.
   Pupils will write their own letters; make sure they follow the conventions noted on the previous page in the textbook.

2. Write the address on this envelope.
   It may be a good idea to bring to class a few addressed envelopes. Show the pupils how these have been addressed, and where the stamp is placed.

C  SPELL AND SPEAK

1. Draw a circle round all the silent letters in the following.
   Discuss some words and letters which are silent. Some letters do not sound the way they are spelt, e.g. enough, phone.
1. high
2. bought
3. wreck
4. knock
5. knee
6. knit
7. eight
8. knot
9. above
10. enough
11. comb
12. stitch

Note:

enough: In this word, the letters ‘gh’ combine to produce the sound ‘f’, and therefore ‘gh’ is an odd pronunciation, but not silent.

Another example of a word with a silent letter: debt

2. Look at these words.
   Discuss spelling rules.

3. Change these into the singular.
   Discuss the spelling rules.
   shelf, wife, thief, knife, half, scarf, calf, elf, leaf,

4. Copy the rhyme into your notebook. Write it beautifully! Learn to say it quickly.
   Pupils should write beautifully as they copy the rhyme into their notebook. It is a tongue twister so it is not easy to learn to say it quickly.

D FACT OR OPINION?

1. Look at the following statements. Use a ruler to draw a line down the middle of a page in your book. Write Fact at the top of one column, and write Opinion at the top of the other. Copy the statements below into the correct columns.
   Fact: a, b, e, g
   Opinion: c, d, f

E COUNTRIES AND PEOPLE

1. Fill in the blanks with the names of countries.
   a. Pakistan
   b. Germany
   c. Italy
   d. Malaysia
   e. Russia
   f. America
   g. Egypt
   h. Wales

2. In which book will you find out where these countries are?
   An atlas.

This is from the opening of this classic story. What if animals could talk? What would they say? What personalities do we give animals?

While Reading: This was because he always had animals around which people did not like. Let pupils suggest reasons for why the people did not like the animals.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The dogs and the children.
   b. No, he lived with his sister, Sarah.
   c. A duck, a dog, a parrot, an owl, goldfish, rabbits, white mice, a squirrel, a hedgehog, a cow and a calf, an old lame horse, chickens, and many other animals lived with Doctor Dolittle.
   d. He says he likes the animals better than he likes the ‘best people’.
   e. The Cat’s-meat-Man.
   f. She says, ‘Ka-kaoi-ee, fee-fee?’ which means, ‘Is the porridge hot yet?’
   g. Doctor Dolittle wrote down the Birds’ alphabet and bird words in his butcher’s book.
   h. Doctor Dolittle became poor because people stopped coming to see him about their illnesses. This was because he always had animals around which people did not like.

This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   ‘You are ridiculous,’ said his sister and walked out of the room.
   a. Sarah Dolittle to her brother Doctor Dolittle.
   b. They were speaking about their different views on Doctor Dolittle’s habit of keeping so many animals in the house and how this has affected the townpeople’s view of him.
   c. Sarah left the room because Doctor Dolittle says he likes animals more than he likes the ‘best people’; she is upset, frustrated, and cross with him.
   d. The Doctor got more and more animals, people came to see him less and less until, eventually, his only visitor was the Cat’s-meat-Man.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Fill in the missing letters in these words from the story.
   cat, rat, sit, parrot, owl, goldfish, lamb

2. Do you remember learning about countable and uncountable nouns?
   Put these nouns into two lists, countable nouns and uncountable nouns. Add two things that you have seen this week to each list.
C: flour, flowers, butter, eggs, bottles, pots, bread
UC: water, money, soil

3. Fill in the blanks with words from the story. You will not find these sentences in the story.
Pupils will write their own sentences. Some suggestions below. Pupils will have to look for suitable vocabulary and, sometimes*, adapt it to make the sentences grammatically correct.
   a. by sight b. edge c. favourite d. grumbled*
   e. ridiculous f. dusted* g. rushed

   Challenge: Pupils will give their own responses. Collect a few ideas from them.

4. Choose the correct homophone for each sentence.
   a. bear b. deer c. due d. piece e. made

SVO: SUBJECT + VERB + OBJECT

1. Identify the subject and object in the following sentences. Underline the subject and circle the object.
   a. S = children; O = biscuits
   b. S = baby; O = ball
   c. S = she; O = eggs
   d. S = he; O = tennis
   e. S = she; O = cereal

2. Can you rewrite the above sentences correctly? Pay attention to the use of subject-verb agreement. The subject and verb must agree in number.
   One of my cousins is coming today.
   One of my sisters is very tall.
   Two of my friends have computers at home.
   Some of the children have some difficulty in walking.

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

ASKING QUESTIONS TO FIND OUT MORE

1. Work in a pair. Look at paragraphs on page 75 of the story. Ask your partner questions about them. Try to answer each other's questions. Use a range of question words: who, what, where, why, when, how many, how much, etc. If there are any questions you cannot answer, ask others in your class.
   Pair up the students. Pupils will come up with their own questions and will try to answer them.
   Reporting questions

2. Take turns to ask somebody a question. The pupil sitting next to you will report your question, then ask another question.
   Pupils may take a little while to get used to first naming a person and then reporting their question. Once they get used to the idea, the questions should flow. Make sure you stop someone if the question is not turned into reported speech in the correct way.
E COMPOSITION

Write a short recount beginning with the sentence:
If I could talk to animals, I...
A descriptive passage is required. Some discussion and note-taking before beginning will be helpful.

Workbook: pages 47–50

A SO MANY ANIMALS!

Oral: Quiz about whether nouns are countable or uncountable. Tea, bread, milk, flour, butter, tobacco, petrol, wood, etc. are all uncountable.

1. Try to think of five countable and five uncountable nouns. Write them here:
   Countable: trees, baskets, cows, fingers, pens, desks, boys, etc.
   Uncountable: wool, plastic, land, bread, ink, tobacco, sugar, money, etc.

2. Use so many or so much to fill in the blanks. The picture clues on the next page will help.
   a. Akbar has so much money that he can buy what he likes.
   b. There are so many clothes in the cupboard that it won’t shut.
   c. There was so much tea in the teapot that we all had two cups.
   d. Sana read so many books that her eyes ached.
   e. There were so many clouds in the sky that we couldn’t see the sun.
   f. The boys wasted so much paint that the teacher was cross.

B ADVERBS

1. Find the adverbs in the following sentences.
   a. crossly
   b. politely
   c. quickly
   d. smartly

2. Underline the verbs in the sentences below. Then fill in the blanks using the adverbs above.
   a. nearly; run
   b. quickly; go
   c. happily; lived
   d. comfortably; sit

C SAY IT SHORTLY!

1. Write abbreviations for the following.

2. Now match the following. Some of the letters are quite different from the first letters of the words, so be careful.
   care of (c/o)  ounce (oz.)  before noon (a.m.)
   kilometres per hour (kph)  and all the rest (etc.)  pound (lb)
Lesson Plans

A humorous story about appearances, hygiene, and a good haircut! Danish is an interesting character so talk about his words and actions as you read the story. The ending should also be reflected on: Why did Danish suddenly become careful about his personal hygiene and cleanliness? Which events throughout the story led him here?

While Reading: Pupils will give their own views. Ask them to give reasons for their opinions.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Danish loved to play games the most.
   b. He found showering and cleaning up to be the most tiresome task.
   c. Danish’s father advised him to always wash his hands before eating the food, as we could end up eating the germs on our hands while eating food.
   d. Danish found lots of ants crawling on his bed in the middle of the night. They had bitten him all over.
   e. Danish dozed off at the park and his hat fell over. People started putting money in his hat, mistaking him to be a poor person because of his shabby appearance.
   f. Danish had caught lice and since he rarely showered or washed his hair, he didn’t know he had lice.
   g. Danish’s mother suggested that he will always be careful about his hygiene, wash his hands when he comes home from the park, shower daily, and brush his teeth after eating candy.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   ‘Where did these come from?’ he asked himself, looking bemused.
   a. Danish said the words after he woke up in the park.
   b. These refers to the coins people had left in his hat.
   c. Danish looked bemused because he was confused about how the coins had come to be in his hat because he had been asleep when people had put them in there.
   d. He decided to get a new look/have a haircut.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. In the table below, few parts of speech are given. Make this table in your notebook and find words from the text that are nouns, adjectives, and verbs. Look around your classroom and find more noun words. Write them in your notebook.
   Pupils will scan the text for answers. They will look around the classroom and find objects that classify as nouns, such as chairs, tables, door, etc.
2. Find the opposite meaning to the following words.
   a. first     b. precisely    c. fell     d. incorrect
   e. few     f. closed    g. speed    h. remembered

   Note: For B.2. f, you will find the present tense of the opposite of this word in the text.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Participles

1. Complete the following. Add a -ing participle and any other words.
   Pupils will compose their own sentences; make sure they have added a present participle as required.
   Examples:
   a. The man caught the boys eating mangoes from his tree.
   b. We spent the afternoon dreaming of the sea.
   c. She locked the cupboard containing the gold jewellery.

The Past Continuous Tense

2. Write these sentences in the past continuous tense in your notebook.
   a. were walking
   b. was repairing
   c. was waiting
   d. was sleeping

The future tense and ‘going to’

3. Change the following. Put going to in place of the future tense (shall/will) and the future tense (shall/will) in place of going to.
   a. My father will build a boat next Saturday.
   b. I am going to sail on the lake.
   c. It looks as if it's going to rain soon.
   d. I am going to (go to) the lake on Saturday.
   e. There is going to be a holiday on Saturday.

Modal Verbs

4. Use may or should in the sentences given below.
   Pupils will write their own answers. Examples:
   a. should    b. should    c. May    d. should

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

True or false?

Work in groups of three. Sit with the members of your group and think of three short stories to tell to the class.

When everybody is ready, tell your stories to the others in the class. Can the others guess which is the false story your group has told?

The ‘stories’ could be personal experiences; two true and one false. E.g. I was once at home alone. There was a thunderstorm. All the lights went out. Suddenly they came on again, and so did the radio and the television.
E COMPOSITION

Use one of the stories you have heard (it might be your own) to make a longer story. Write about it. Read it out to the class.

Pupils should use their imagination to think how they might develop the story to make it interesting. They will need to develop the detail and descriptions.

Workbook: pages 51–54

A BISCUIT OR DOG?

Oral: Recall page 24 and 25 and give some further explanation.

1. Change the following sentences and put in the word to.
   a. I gave the mango to him.
   b. She sent a letter to my friend.
   c. They lent the books to my father.

2. Now change the following sentences and leave out to.
   a. I gave the child the top.
   b. I sent the manager the letter.
   c. I paid the shopkeeper the money.
   d. I showed the visitors the house.

B SHOULD

1. Write answers for these statements.
   Pupils will make up their own sentences. Suggestions:
   a. ‘You should to stop eating more right now (or else you will get a stomach ache)!'
   b. ‘You should to lie down for a while and rest.’
   c. ‘She should to go and see why the baby is upset.’
   d. ‘We should to ask permission first.’
   e. ‘You should to be more careful.’
   f. ‘You should to keep it clean.’

C AUNT’S LETTERS

Imagine that you received this letter from your aunt. Write a reply, saying that you will spend your winter vacations with her.

Briefly recall pages 44–45 of the Workbook, before proceeding with this exercise.

D WORD GAME

1. Try to make words from the letters in the box.
   This exercise should be done on a sheet of paper as the number of words found may be considerable. Give the pupils a set time (say, ten minutes) and check to find out how many words they have found. This could be organized as a team event or as a competition.
| sit, sat, set, sag, sane, site, star, stir, stare | neat, near, net, nit, nest |
| snake, snare, seat, sent, sing, sink, stink, sting, skin | race, rat, rain, rate, raise, rear, rage, reign, range, rang, ran |
| eat, east, ear, earn | task, tiger, tin, ten, tan, tank, tang, tear, tea, tanker, tie, tag |
| kite, kit, king, kin, knit | in, it, ire, irate, ink, is |
| ask, air, age, at, an, ate, ark, anger, ant | gain, gate, gear, get, grin, great, grain |

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Every day the doves come to a roof opposite the poet’s window, and sometimes to her window ledge.
   b. The doves are described as having shining necks and snowy feathers; little rosy, tripping feet; twinkling eyes and fluttering wings. They have cooing voices, which are low and sweet.
   c. The poet is happy to see the doves because she watches them daily. She also says that they ‘feel her love’.
   d. The poet gets the doves to sit on her window ledge by placing crumbs of bread on it.
   e. The poet hides behind a curtain so that the birds are not frightened. By feeding them daily, they become less frightened.

   These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.
   f. The poem is full of description. Pupils could collect any of the following points (and more!):
      • the appearance: in flocks, with shining/gleaming necks, snowy feathers, little rosy feet, twinkling eyes
      • the sounds: cooing, a low and sweet sound but also the word flutter is somewhat onomatopoeic.
      • how they move: tripping feet; fluttering wings; stretch their necks; shyly; gracefully; circle downward in soft flight
   g. Pupils will give their own views. A suggestion: kindness and patience allows us to get close to and observe nature/beauty.

2. Answer the questions about these lines from the poem.
   And my alms are freely taken
   By the shyest little dove
   a. The poet is giving the alms and the doves are taking them.
   b. The alms are given in the form of bread crumbs.
   c. The result of the giving of alms is that even the shyest of the doves ceases to be frightened of the poet, and comes to her window to coo, stretch its neck and greet her.
3. Look carefully at the way the lines rhyme. Also notice that the first line of every couplet (pair of lines) is longer than the second.

Go through the poem again, with the above statements in mind. Check that this is true. Ask the pupils to count the syllables too.

The rhyming scheme is: abcb defe. The number of syllables in the lines is 8/7.

4. Can you tell how many syllables there are in each of the following words?
   a. 1   b. 1   c. 2   d. 2   e. 2   f. 5   g. 2   h. 3   i. 2   j. 1   k. 4   l. 1

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Match the adjectives in column A with the nouns in column B.
   as black as midnight as flat as a pancake as cold as ice as free as a bird as blind as a bat as graceful as a swan as deaf as a post as hungry as a wolf as fit as a fiddle as red as a rose

2. What can you remember about nouns?
   a. Write the plurals for these nouns. Use a dictionary to check that you have used the correct endings.
      Pupils will use the dictionary to find meaning of the given words.
   b. Draw a table like the one below in your notebook. Fill it in with these nouns. Try to add two more to each column.
      Neuter: worker, person
      Masculine: lion, drone, bull, man, buffalo, rooster Feminine: bee, cow, hen, lioness, chicken, woman
   c. Write the proper nouns in one list and the common nouns in another list. Add four more to each list.
      Proper nouns: Bilal, Benji, Mount Fuji, Karachi
      Common nouns: boy, cat, mountain, city, lake

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

More about tenses

1. Say whether the following are in the simple present or present continuous tense.
   a. pc   b. sp   c. sp   d. sp   e. pc

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Note the stressed syllables in bold. Clap when you read the stressed syllables aloud.
   Try reading some other poetry in this fashion. This will draw the pupils’ attention to the fact that many poems have strong rhythms. However, when reading poetry aloud, this should not be overstressed; the lines should flow naturally. The beat or rhythm will be underlying.

2. Read the poem a few times. Read it aloud. Make sure you pronounce all the words correctly.
   Pick out the words with long vowel sounds and drill these. Here are some sounds to try:
a. store, more, for, shore, bore, law, draw, gnaw, ignore, lore, thaw
b. over, own, blown, show, crow, low, owe, throw, go, mow
c. far, bar, car, hard, card, part, start, art, garden
d. air, fair, bear, care, lair, there, mayor, rare, stair, pair, dare
e. cloud, loud, round, bound, found, clown, drown, brown, noun, bout

3. Charts and Graphs
   a. Talk about the pie chart and bar graph below. What information do they show about students in class B?

4. Talk to your classmates about this calendar. Ask each other questions about it. Answer each other in full sentences.
Pupils will study the given calendar and notice the dates marked on it.

E COMPOSITION
1. What do you do every day? Write a paragraph about what you do every day. Which tense will you use?
2. Write another paragraph about what you are doing at the moment. Which tense will you use?
Pupils have done a similar exercise before. Make sure that this piece is quite different from that one. The first piece should be (as far as possible) in the simple present tense; the second in the present continuous tense.

Workbook: pages 55–57

A THE PRESENT TENSES
1. In the following sentences, underline the verbs that are in the simple present tense. (Don't underline verbs in any other tense.)
   a. visits  b. come  c. throws  d. waits  e. give  f. take, spend
2. Write the verbs you have underlined above in the brackets below. Use the verbs in sentences of your own, but this time use them in the present continuous tense. Remember that the action should be taking place now.
Pupils will write their own sentences. The verbs should be in the present continuous tense: is/are/am visiting, coming, throwing, waiting, giving, taking, spending

B SPELLING RULE
Recall work done on page 46 of the workbook.
1. Copy the words above into your notebook.
2. Write the plurals of the following:
   heroes  cliffs  cargoes  tomatoes  roofs  leaves  scarves pianos  banjos  solos  potatoes  wives  halves  gulfs Also note:
   hoofs
C SAY IT CORRECTLY

Pupils can practise saying this rhyme and focus on getting the R sound right.
*There are no ‘R’s in that.

D HAPPILY HAPPILY

1. Make adverbs from these adjectives.
   a. quietly
   b. smartly
   c. slowly
   d. lazily
   e. quickly
   f. shyly
   g. loudly
   h. grandly
   i. carefully
   j. kindly

2. Write sentences of your own. Use the adverbs you have made.
   Pupils will make their own sentences.

The pupils might like to consider how the townsfolk came together to find a solution to their problem. Talk about the themes of collaboration and working together in peace and harmony.

While Reading: The last two lines in the first paragraph show us that the villagers were nice people. They had no enemies and lived peacefully. They troubled no one and no one troubled them.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The villagers were happy and wealthy; they had no enemies and lived peacefully. They troubled no one and no one troubled them.
   b. The main problem faced by the villagers was that they had problems crossing the river.
   c. The villagers could not easily go the hospital and the school because of the riving.
   d. The idea of using a boat for crossing the rivers was not a practical one because in case of emergency, one boat would not be enough.
   e. The little boy came up with the idea of building a bridge.
   f. The villagers finally decided on following through with the idea of building a bridge.
   g. Pupils will give their own answers for this.

   Challenge: Pupils will give their own opinions and reasons for them.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Find the meaning of the following words in the dictionary.
   a. crazy  b. construct  c. townsfolk  d. undisturbed
   e. discuss  f. route  g. announced  h. vision/place

2. Use these words in sentences of your own.
   Pupils will make up their own sentences.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Past participles

1. Fill in the simple past and past participles of the following words in the list given below. The first one has been done for you.
   a. walked  walked  b. spent  spent
   c. wrote  written  d. jumped  jumped
   e. ate  eaten  f. spoke  spoken
2. Add suitable past participles to the following sentences.
   a. This book was read by me.
   b. This tea was made by my mother.
   c. All the cakes were eaten by the children.
   d. This building was built by my father.
   e. When the branch was shaken, the apples fell down.
   f. This picture was painted by my uncle.
   g. The books were given to the school by Maha.

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Make statements about the two illustrations. Use ‘should have’ or ‘should not have’ in all the statements you make.

Pupils should work in pairs and first make a list of all the differences. They should then, each in turn, make statements about what the Yousufs should have had in their house.

Statements can begin with:

The house should have… (had two floors, had a fountain at the front, etc.)

The house should not have… (had a straight driveway, garage connected to it, a raised platform at the front, etc.)

Some of the obvious differences:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>House 1</th>
<th>House 2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Two storeys</td>
<td>One storey with a room on flat roof Terrace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 windows on each floor</td>
<td>Four windows</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Veranda in front with pillars and railing</td>
<td>Porch</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One step up to veranda</td>
<td>No veranda, but raised platform in front</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pointed tiled roof</td>
<td>Three steps to front door</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two gates at the front</td>
<td>Single (straight) drive from the gate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crescent driveway</td>
<td>Fence round property</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fountain in middle of pond</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One tree in garden, rest lawn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wall round property</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

E COMPOSITION

Imagine you are one of the villagers. Write a letter to a friend or relation in another village to complain about the road being built close to the village and ask them for their advice. Remember to set out your letter properly.

Briefly remind the pupils about the form of an informal letter.

An informal letter will include the following: the address of the sender and a date, a suitable greeting with a comma after it, a suitable ending.

A formal letter has the following: the address of the sender along with the address of the recipient. The ending should be formal too: Yours faithfully, if the receiver is addressed as Dear Sir or Dear Madam; Yours sincerely, if the name of the receiver is used—Dear Mr Khan, Dear Ms Ahmed, etc.
A MAY/MAY NOT

1. Words such as may/may not are used to express and deny permission.
   a. May
   b. May
   c. may not
   d. may not

B CAN/CANNOT

1. The words can is used to express ability or to say something is possible. The word cannot is used when we don't have the ability to do something.
   a. cannot
   b. can
   c. cannot
   d. can/cannot

C USING MAY/MAY NOT AND CAN/CANNOT

1. Use the words can, cannot, may, may not in the following sentences.
   a. cannot
   b. may
   c. may
   d. may
   e. may

2. Write one sentence each using the following: can, cannot, may, and may not.
   Pupils will make their own sentences.

D CONJUNCTIONS

Oral: More examples of conjunctions, as shown in the text on pages 56–57 of the Workbook.

1. Add suitable conjunctions in the blanks below.
   a. He can sing but he can’t whistle.
   b. You can take either the big book or the small book.
   c. Nadeem is neither (not only) tall nor (but) heavy.
   d. Shakir is neither (not only) handsome nor (but) clever.
   e. Will you come tonight or tomorrow morning?
   f. My uncle and my aunt came, but my cousins did not.
   g. She not only (neither) visited her friend in hospital but also (nor) took him some (any) grapes.
   h. The car was not only old but also very expensive.
   i. Abid is young but very clever.
I DON’T KNOW/I SHALL ASK

Oral: Give the pupils an example with ‘I don’t know…’ and ‘I shall ask…’ Then ask them questions.

E.g. ‘Hina, where does your friend’s father work?’

Ans: I don’t know. I don’t know where… etc.

or I shall ask him/her. I shall … etc.

1. Make similar sentences.

   a. I don’t know. I don’t know what I got for my birthday six years ago.
   b. I shall ask them. I shall ask Mr and Mrs Aslam when they eat their lunch.
   c. I don’t know. I don’t know why my brother came home late.
   d. I don’t know. I don’t know what my friend said to his father.
      I shall ask him. I shall ask my friend what he said to his father.
   e. I don’t know. I don’t know where Hina went for her holiday.
      I shall ask her. I shall ask Hina where she went for her holiday.
   f. I don’t know. I don’t know how I got that sum right.
   g. I don’t know. I don’t know why my father always sings in the bathroom.
      I shall ask him. I shall ask my father why he always sings in the bathroom.
   h. I don’t know. I don’t know where my neighbour takes his dog every evening.
      I shall ask him. I shall ask my neighbour where he takes his dog every evening.

A COMPREHENSION

1. Which of these sentences are true (T) or false (F)?
   a. True  b. False  c. True  d. True
   e. False  f. False  g. True

These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.

h. Living in such difficult Hibah developed resilience and a strong will to achieve the goals she set for herself. She became hardworking and believed her dreams will come true if she never gives up.

i. If Hibah had given up, she would never have been able to pave way for her dreams, she would never have become a rocket engineer at NASA. Her story teaches us to never get disappointed and give up during difficult times. We should keep on working hard to achieve our goals, just like Hibah.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Astronomy is the study of stars. Here are some fields of study. Match each with its description.
   Biology - study of life
   Sociology - study of society Archaeology - study of fossils Zoology - study of animals
   Geography - study of earth

Compound Words

Compound words are words made when two or more words are joined together.

a. Find five compound words in the play.
   Ask students to find out compound words in the text (like Something, international, etc.) and share with them with class.

b. Match these pairs to make compound words strawberry  farmyard  classroom rainbow  sunflower  goldfish

c. Choose a compound word from a. or b. and write three sentences showing the different meanings of the separate words and the compound word.

1. Here are some words which form their opposites by adding the prefix un-.
   unkind  unmade  unlucky  undone

2. See if you can add the correct prefix (un- or dis-) to the following.
   a. unhappy  b. disagree  c. displease  d. disappear
   e. disbelieve  f. unallowed  g. disappoint  h. unclear
C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Present Participles

1. Underline the present participles in the following sentences; say whether they are used as verbs or adjectives. If they are used as verbs, put a circle around the object. If they are used as adjectives, draw a box around the noun they describe.
   a. One day I saw a man reading a book. (verb)
   b. I saw another man painting a wall. (verb)
   c. The man reading a book was standing up. (verb, verb)
   d. The man painting the wall was standing up too. (verb, verb)
   e. The man reading a book was using a magnifying glass. (verb, verb, adjective)
   f. The man painting the wall was using an old rotting brush. (verb, verb, adjective)
   g. Suddenly, I saw a fierce dog running towards them. (verb, verb, adjective)
   h. The men saw the dog approaching them. (verb, verb)
   i. They began to run, leaving their things on the ground. (verb, verb)
   j. The dog went to sleep. (verb, verb)

Verbs used Idiomatically

2. Use some of these expressions in sentences of your own.
   Students should be able to make sentences of the idiomatic expressions given above.

D. LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Career ‘ABC’

With your class, pick an occupation for each letter of the alphabet. Your teacher will assign each person an alphabet. Think about what skills that job would need and why those skills are important for that job.
Discuss various professions with the class. Use pictures and/or roleplay to demonstrate further.

E. COMPOSITION

Which career would you like to choose when you grow up? Think about what you enjoy doing and what your hobbies are. If you really like drawing and colouring, you can think about becoming an artist, or if science is your passion, you can become a scientist.

Write a paragraph on your dream job. Give a few reasons for why you want to choose this career.
Help students discover their talents and polish them. Ask them to write a paragraph and share their dream job with the class. The paragraph should include what led them to think about that particular dream job and how.

Workbook: pages 62–65
A -ING PARTICIPLES

Oral: Revision.

1. Underline the present participles in the following sentences.
   a. crying   b. sinking   c. laughing   d. rolling   e. interesting

2. Is the present participle a verb or an adjective?
   a. The climbing monkey made funny faces at us. (adjective)
   b. We noticed an old man coming down the path. (verb)
   c. The man found a puppy howling for its mother. (verb)
   d. The screaming child was taken away by his mother. (adjective)
   e. Seeing the beggar with his bowl, we gave him a coin. (verb)

3. Write two sentences in your notebook; in one use a present participle as a verb and in the other use it as an adjective. Your teacher will help you.

   Pupils should try to do this on their own. If they are stuck, then help with some suggestions of present participles.
   As an adjective: dripping tap, falling leaves, screaming child, fading light, bellowing calf, singing birds, laughing monkeys...
   As a verb: tap dripping all day, leaves falling on the lawn, the child screaming with pain, the light fading in the evening, the calf bellowing for its mother, a bird singing from the tree, a monkey laughing at the children...

B ADVERBS

1. Use suitable adverbs in place of the underlined words.
   a. badly   b. easily   c. bravely   d. quickly   e. hurriedly

C SIMPLE JOINING WORDS

1. Fill in the blanks using so, but, because, and, or although.
   a. Although   b. and   c. because   d. but   e. so

D COMPARISONS

Oral: No help for the first part.

1. Complete these well known comparisons.
   a. as black as night   b. as cold as ice   c. as deaf as a post
   d. as flat as a pancake   e. as graceful as a swan   f. as red as a rose
   g. as free as a bird   h. as fit as a fiddle

2. Here are some new comparisons. Try completing them. The pictures will help.
   a. as soft as butter   b. as brave as a lion   c. as ripe as an apple
   d. as hard as nails   e. as silly as a goose   f. as regular as clockwork

3. Now complete these:
   a. a herd of cattle   b. a gaggle of geese   c. a swarm of bees
   d. a shoal of fish   e. a bunch of roses   f. a crowd of people
   g. a bunch of keys   h. a range of hills
E  ADVERBS OF TIME

Oral: Some general observations using: always, often, usually and never.

1. Discuss these sentences. Are they true?
   Note that if the adverb is replaced, the meaning is altered and the statement may become false.
   E.g. Sugar is never sweet. False
   All the statements are true.

2. Complete the following sentences using always, often, usually or never, and use one of the phrases from the box below.
   a. A fountain pen usually contains ink. b. An envelope is usually made of paper.
   c. A library always (usually) contains books. d. A shirt is often made of cotton.
   e. A goat usually eats leaves. f. A baby often cries loudly.
   g. A good policeman never takes a bribe. h. A vegetarian never eats meat.
   i. A stool usually has three legs. j. A sentence always ends in a full stop.

Workbook: pages 66–70

This test covers textbook and workbook units 1–11.

A READING

Read the following aloud to your teacher.

Make sure pupils read with expression. The first part is a narrative; the storyteller is speaking. When the conversation begins, the voice should be modulated to reflect the speaker’s character and mood. If pupils are directed not to read out the name of the speaker in each case, then they will have to modulate their tone to show who is saying what.

B COMPREHENSION

1. Answer these questions about the reading passage.
   a. The owner of a large Japanese company is coming; Adil is going to meet him, but the plane has arrived early, so Adil is hurrying.
   b. He decides to tell the officer a number of stories.
   c. Yes, he is. He asks questions politely and says ‘please’.
   d. The Superintendent is puzzled because none of the information that he has been given by the arresting police officer is proving to be correct.
   e. These are Adil’s stories: he does not have a licence because it was taken away after his previous driving offence; he cannot show the vehicle owner’s card because it is not his car, he stole it; he has a gun in the glovebox; he shot and killed the owner of the car and put her body in the boot.
   f. Adil would probably have got a lot more than a fine if the Superintendent had proved that the police officer had been telling the truth and that Adil had been lying. Accept any answer from the pupils, if it is given with reasons.

C TEXTBOOK QUIZ

1. Give short answers to these questions from your Textbook.
   a. Stavr Godinovich (The Ambassador's Disguise)
   b. People's language and bird language (The Story of Doctor Dolittle)
   c. The poet's (Louisa May Alcott) alms are taken by the doves. (My Doves)
   d. The wise villagers (The Wise Villagers)
   e. Danish Nasiruddin Pirzada (Haircut)

2. Give complete answers to these questions about your Textbook.
   a. People stopped using him as their doctor because his house was always full of animals.
   b. The prince ordered Zabava to marry the Ambassador. The Ambassador had threatened to attack if the tribute could not be paid, and if the tribute could not be paid then the prince was to give him Zabava’s hand in marriage.
   c. The wise villagers decided upon building a bridge to easily cross the river.
D WORKING WITH WORDS

1. What is it? Who is it?
   a. trumpeting
   b. a group of letters added at the end of a word to form another word (e.g. –ful, -ed, -less.)
   c. Egyptian
   d. vegetarian
   e. optometrist/optician
   f. jockey
   g. miner

2. To which of the following words may we add -ful(l) and -less?
   a. painful/painless
   b. thankful/thankless
   c. year
   d. pointless
   e. backless

3. Write the plural for each of the following:
   a. oxen
   b. women
   c. children
   d. boxes
   e. halves
   f. shelves

4. Fill in the blanks with suitable ‘sound’ words.
   Alternatives are possible.
   a. the boom/clap/rumble/crash of thunder
   b. the tinkle/clanging/jingling of bells
   c. the boom/beat/rattle of a drum
   d. the ticking/chiming of a clock

5. Write three words which have the letters -gh- in them.
   Pupils will write their own words.
   ghost, right, eight, might, sigh, plough, though, dough, enough, ought

6. How many syllables are there in the following words?
   a. ac/tor (2)
   b. to/ma/to (3)
   c. po/lice (2)
   d. flower (1)
   e. min/is/ter (3)
   f. con/nec/tion (3)

7. Write one proverb that you know.
   Pupils will write any of the proverbs that they have learnt.
   Many hands make light work; The early bird catches the worm; Too many cooks spoil the broth, etc.

E LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

1. Name three uncountable nouns.
   Examples: sugar, milk, sand, salt, cement, water, air, etc.

2. Use the word still in a sentence of your own.
   Example: Rida has still not told her parents.

3. Join the two sentences. Use who or which.
   a. This is Jack who built a large house.
   b. These are the red flowers which we see in the fields in June.

4. Change these adjectives into adverbs.
   a. promptly
   b. jokingly
   c. ably
   d. carefully

5. Put a line under the nouns and circle the verbs.
   She sent the letter and parcel with her young son and he lost them.

Limericks

Read the pupils some other limericks; many are very amusing. Ask them to compose some limericks of their own. To see some of Edward Lear’s sketches and drawings and to read some of his limericks, go to this site: http://www.nonsenselit.org/Lear/

Suggestions and answers

A UNDERSTANDING THE POEM

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. It was not afloat so it was either on dry land or it sank!
   b. The man from Ewell ate gruel with mice in it!
   c. The lady of Russia screamed.

   This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   d. Pupils will give their own answers.

2. Answer the questions about these lines from one of the limericks.
   When they said, ‘No! you ain’t!’
   He was ready to faint,
   a. An old man in a boat who thinks he is afloat, but isn’t.
   b. ‘No! you ain’t’ means ‘No! you are not’.
   c. Perhaps he was shocked that he was not afloat.

3. Can you write the rhyming scheme for the limericks?
   The rhyming scheme for all limericks is: a a b b a

4. Count the number of syllables in each line. Copy the limericks into your notebook. Mark each line like this:
   Number of syllables in the first limerick: 8, 8, 6, 6, 9
   Number of syllables in the second limerick: 9, 9, 5, 6, 10
   Number of syllables in the third limerick: 9, 9, 6, 6, 10
   Note that these are syllables and not feet. A foot consists of a number of syllables (1, 2, 3 or more). Feet are divided like this:
   There was an / old man in / a tree,
   Whose whis kers / were love ly / to see
   (The feet used in a limerick can vary. Some limericks contain amphibrach feet—a stressed syllable between two unstressed syllables—and others are made up of the anapaestic foot—two short syllables followed by a long syllable. This information is for you.)
B WORKING WITH WORDS

Match the following.

1. All’s well that ends well.
2. Cut your coat according to your cloth.
3. Don’t count your chickens before they hatch.
4. Look before you leap.
5. A stitch in time saves nine.
6. All that glitters is not gold.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Past participles

Remind the pupils about participles.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Use five of the past participles from those above in sentences of your own.
   Pupils will write their own sentences.

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Choose one of the expressions in Working with Words, and write down in your own words what it means. Think about a situation or short story in which you can use the expression.

Remember that this is primarily a speaking exercise. Pupils should not spend too long thinking/writing about the expression they have chosen. The idea is for the pupils to think quickly about how they can link a story or incident to the given expression, make a few notes (mainly to remind them of what they are going to say) and then to speak for a minute or two, as fluently and coherently as possible.

E COMPOSITION

Try to write your own limerick.

Note that limericks usually, but not always, begin with a line that defines the theme. This is usually a person.

There was a young man of . . . but this could be, old man, young lady, plump baby, tall boy, etc.

Limericks are also usually funny.

Illustrate the limericks. Put up the limericks on the display board.

Workbook: pages 71–74

A WORKING WITH A DICTIONARY

Oral: Practical work with the use of dictionaries. Choose your own words and see how quickly the children can find them. Make sure each pupil has a dictionary to hand.

Go through the points in the list with the pupils.

1. Follow the instructions above and fill in the blanks below.
   a. curtain  b. carton  c. cotton  d. collar  e. colours  f. carrot
2. Find these words in the dictionary. They are all nouns.
   a. sandal  b. oasis  c. hurdle  d. perfume  e. hangar
   At each stage ask the pupils to consult a dictionary.

B THE BROKEN WINDOW

Here is a story in pictures. Write the story in your notebook.
You may discuss the pictures first or leave it to the pupils to complete on their own.
Pupils should be reminded to make their stories interesting, to give all the people names, use adjectives and some dialogue.

C ASKING QUESTIONS

Oral: Try some statements with the pupils and see if they can give the correct questions.

Can you write the questions for these answers?
Alternatively, questions may be asked. To check whether or not a correct question has been asked, ask the question and see if the answer is the one that would normally be given; if it is not, then rephrase the question.

Some possible questions:
1. Does this pen belong to you?
2. Where is Sara?
3. Do you learn German?
4. When are... coming to see you?
5. Has the postman brought any parcels?
6. Is that Nida’s cousin?
7. What is that?

D WRITING

1. Change the verbs in brackets to the simple past tense.
   My happiest memories: gave My saddest memories: could, went, had

2. Write similar sentences for the ages of 6 and 8 in your notebook.
   Pupils will compose their own sentences.

3. Use the past form of the verbs in brackets to complete these memories.
   The happiest day of my life: played, tried, scored, won.
   The worst day of my life: got, could, found, became.

4. Tell the class about your answers to these questions.
   Pupils will give their own answers.

A story about an elderly lady who makes a mistake. We all make mistakes from time to time. Ask the pupils if they have ever made a mistake like this. Have they ever suspected that somebody has done something or taken something of theirs, and blamed them? And did they find that they had blamed them mistakenly? What happened? How did they feel?

While Reading: The lady noticed that the woman's clothing was old and worn, and assumed that she must be poor and ready to steal money.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. The man shook his wife gently to wake her up (but not frighten her).
   b. No, she did not get up immediately.
   c. Bags, baskets, sacks, boxes, and trunks were being carried on the bus.
   d. The lady sat on the edge of a seat, next to a heavy woman.
   e. The bus stopped suddenly because a large box had fallen off the roof of the bus.
   f. The lady opened the woman's bag because she thought the woman had taken her money.
   g. A young boy helped the lady.
   h. The woman looked upset because she had lost a thousand rupees.

   This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   i. The man scratched his head and looked puzzled because he knew his wife had left the thousand-rupee note at home. He wondered where she had got the money to buy so many things.

2. Fill in the blanks with suitable words from the story.
   a. hurry, miss  b. gently  c. grabbed  d. dismay  e. traffic  f. luckily

3. Answer the questions about these lines from the story.

   She felt sorry for her, but she also felt very cross. She decided not to make a big fuss or call for the police.
   a. The lady felt sorry for the woman on the bus. She felt sorry for her because the woman had a dirty bag and clothes which were old and torn. The woman was obviously not rich.
   b. She was cross because she thought the woman had taken her money.
   c. She decided instead to open the woman's bag and take back (what she thought was) her money.

Challenge:
Talk about the things that the lady could have done differently. Could she have got out of bed earlier? Could she have thought more carefully about whether or not she had picked up the money? Could she have spoken to the woman? She saw that the woman's clothes were old and worn and presumed that because she was poor, she was dishonest—she was wrong to presume this. She stole the woman's money. Could she try to find the woman to give her back the money?
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Complete the following sentences by finding a suitable end in the boxes below.
   a. The man woke his wife with a cup of tea.
   b. When she reached the bus stop, she was huffing and puffing.
   c. She walked up and down the market and stopped to look at the people.
   d. In the town there are wonderful things to look at in the shops.
   e. It was not too uncomfortable as she had a nice plump cushion on one side.

2. Use the following in sentences of your own.
Pupils will write their own sentences. Ask them to first find the words in the passage and to note how they have been used.

3. Find the opposites of these words. They are all in the story.
a. uncomfortable  b. opened  c. carefully  d. quickly/hastily  e. dirty  f. loudly

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Adverbs
Revise adverbs. Note again that not all adverbs end in -ly.

1. Underline the adverbs in the following.
   a. Rahim ran quickly after the burglar.
   b. Rehana sat comfortably in her chair.
   c. Slowly, Sonny walked to the telephone.

2. Use the adverbs of time from the box to complete the sentences.
Pupils may use alternative words. Ask them to check in the dictionary to find out whether the words they have used are in fact adverbs.
a. tomorrow  b. yesterday  c. next week
   d. yet  e. at the moment  f. usually

3. Use adverbs of place from the box to complete the sentences.
a. Don’t go outside because it is dangerous.
   b. The tiger ran along the road.
   c. Samir comes here every day.
   d. The boys marched past and saluted the flag.
   (Note that past is not the same as passed!)

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. On your journey home from school or to school, make a note of at least ten posters, signs, billboards, and adverts that you see. Describe some of them to your class in your next lesson.
Pupils will describe some of the billboards and advertisements they’ve seen in their surroundings.

2. Form small groups and talk about the following drawings. Describe the pictures, then compare them. Use the words and expressions under each set of pictures.
You may start by asking the pupils to make statements about any two objects in the classroom, or by drawing two simple figures on the blackboard. (Two trees, two flowers, two cats, two houses, etc.) This house is good. This one is better. Which house is better? etc.
Pupils should use the comparative and superlative forms of words when describing the various features illustrated in the pictures.

E.g. Drawing a. is not as good as drawing b. Drawing b. is better than drawing a.
Note that the definite article ‘the’ is placed before the superlative: the fastest, the best, the meanest.

E COMPOSITION

Have you ever made a mistake like the lady on the bus? How did you set it right? What lesson did you learn from your mistake? Write about it.

Everyone makes mistakes. Perhaps you can start the ball rolling by telling the pupils about a mistake (mistaken identity, wrong number dialled, wrong message passed on, etc.) that you have made. Then encourage them to tell you their own stories.

Workbook: pages 75–77

A ADVERBS

_Oral:_ Recall work done on page 16 of the Workbook.

1. Write the adverbs formed from the following adjectives.
   a. happily
   b. confidently
   c. accidentally
   d. quickly
   e. fortunately
   f. attractively

2. Choose five words from the box and write your own sentences. Use each word twice, once as an adjective and once as an adverb.
   Examples:
   the early bird (adj.) go to bed early (adv.)
   the far hills (adj.) they went far (adv.)
   the fast car (adj.) the car travelled fast (adv.)
   the high road (adj.) they flew high (adv.)
   a hard stone (adj.) worked hard (adv.)—not hardly.

3. Use these adverbs of time and place in interesting sentences of your own. After writing each sentence, underline the adverb and say which kind it is.
   Pupils will make up their own sentences; check to see whether they have used the words correctly.
   a. already – adverb of time
   b. below – adverb of place
   c. finally – adverb of time
   d. nearby – adverb of place

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

1. Rewrite the sentences in the present perfect tense.
   a. Sara has eaten dinner
   b. Omar has had two dogs and four cats.
   c. Aslam has slept for nine hours.

2. Look at the pictures and the information below. Write the correct numbers in the boxes.
   a. This man's name is Mr Tariq. He ...
   b. This boy is called Rameez. He ...
   c. This crow is making a big noise. It ...

HEADINGS:

- E COMPOSITION
- Workbook: pages 75–77
- A ADVERBS
- PRESENT PERFECT TENSE
3. Write two sentences about each picture. The first is done for you.
   b. Rameez has been going to school for seven years.
      He has been going to school since 2002.
   c. This crow has been making a big noise for hours.
      It has been cawing since 6 o’clock this morning.

A two-part story, this time about a hobby, stamp collecting. Pupils might like to tell you about their own hobbies, so ask if they have any.

You may, however, want to defer this till they get to Exercise D., when you can discuss hobbies that the pupils enjoy. In what ways are hobbies useful? This particular hobby certainly proved to be a good one for Asim.

Discuss and use the unfamiliar words in sentences: mist, gloomily, common, ordinary, forged, envelope, precious, occasion.

While Reading: Pupils to come up with their own answers. Possible adjectives could be kind, interesting, friendly, thoughtful…

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Asim got up as soon as he woke up. He felt pleased when he woke up because it was a bright day and he was going to play football with his friend Yasir.
   b. Thunder makes a loud crashing noise and a deep rumbling noise.
   c. Uncle Mike gave Asim his stamp album.
   d. Uncle Mike gave the album to Asim because his own children had all grown up and gone abroad. He no longer had any use for it.
   e. The first postage stamp was called ‘The Penny Black.’
   f. On every 21st stamp on a sheet of 100, there was a tiny, coloured mark under the princess’s eye that looked like a tear. These princess stamps were rare so they were more valuable than others.
   g. We know that Uncle Mike liked puris because he came to their house on Sundays at breakfast time because he loved Asim’s mother’s cooking, especially her puris. He thought that Asim’s mother was the best cook in the world.

These questions are more difficult. Discuss them first.

h. People paid high prices for the forged stamps because they thought they were real.
   i. Pupils will give their own answers.

2. Answer the questions about this line from the story.
   He gave him the packet and as soon as they got inside the house, Asim opened it.
   a. Uncle Mike
   b. Uncle Mike usually came to visit Asim’s family at this time on a Sunday because he loved eating puris, and thought that Asim’s mother was the best cook in the world.
   c. An album and a box of stamps
   d. It was a going to be a rainy day, so it was a useful gift. Asim would be able to sort out the stamps indoors.

Challenge: When the weather changed and he heard thunder, Asim became gloomy. He became sad because now he would not be able to go out and play football. He was pleased when he got the album.
B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Match the following abbreviations and their meanings.

   lb   pound(s) (weight)  Dec.  December  F  Fahrenheit  H  hour(s) mph  miles per hour     NE  northeast  MA  Master of Arts  BC  Before Christ

2. There are many adjectives in the passage. Find ten adjectives and match them with the following.

   a. bright day   b. loud noise   c. old Austin   d. large packet
   e. tall Englishman  f. weeping princess  g. rare stamps  h. stamp album
   i. delicious puris   j. metal box

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Mixed tenses

Look at these sentences. Note the different tenses.
Discuss all the examples given in the textbook, and give further examples on the board.

1. See if you can say what the following tenses are.

   1. My brother was jumping over the fence. (past continuous)
   2. He often jumps over the fence. (simple present)
   3. Suddenly, he fell over. (simple past)
   4. Salim is saving all his money. (present continuous)
   5. The soldiers fought bravely. (simple past)
   6. She was singing as she worked. (past continuous)

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

1. Listen to the phrases. Notice which words are unstressed or weak (of, for, but, and, in). Then say them out loud.
   Read the phrases out loud and notice how the words are stressed and unstressed. Students will make sentences of their own.

2. Do you have a hobby? What is it?
   If pupils do not have a hobby, they might think of one that they would like to take up. They should say why.

E COMPOSITION

Find any postage stamp and draw it in your notebook. Write a few sentences about it.
Pupils could write an accurate description (objectively) about the stamp. Alternatively, they might describe the stamp colourfully, and invent a reason why the figure, design or portrait was put on the stamp.

Workbook: pages 93–95

A MR JAMIL: USING MIXED TENSES

Oral: After the pupils have read the passage, ask questions. Don’t restrict yourself to the questions on page 94. Use while in your questions, e.g. While he was driving home, what did Mr Jamil see?
Read the story, and then answer the questions on page 94.

1. While Mr Jamil was on his way home, he saw a tortoise crossing the road.
2. Mr Jamil sat in his car and waited patiently, while the tortoise made its slow journey across the road.
3. While Mr Jamil was reflecting on the life of a tortoise, he heard the sound of a distant horn.
4. Mr Jamil was leaping about on the road because the bus was getting closer and closer and it might run over the tortoise.
5. Mr Jamil's explanation to the driver was that he did not want the him to crush the tortoise (which must have moved out of the while they were talking).

B MORE OPPOSITES

1. Match the following adjectives in boxes below with their opposites. Write the pairs here.
   - heavy/light
   - empty/full
   - tasty/tasteless
   - wavy/straight
   - tiny/huge
   - pretty/ugly
   - rude/polite
   - cloudy/clear
   - steady/shaky
   - early/late

2. Try to write the opposites of these words.
   a. sweet/sour/sharp/bitter
   b. evil/good/pure
   c. glad/sad
   d. foolish/wise/sensible/clever
   e. mature/immature/childish
   f. deep/shallow
   g. awake/asleep/dozy
   h. kind/unkind/cruel
   i. active/lazy/inactive
   j. rough/smooth/tender
   k. expensive/cheap
   l. tender/hard/tough

Recall what happened in the first part of this story.

Associated words you might like to use: philately (pron: phiLAT’ely), philatelist, revenue, watermark, postal, forgery, perforations, gum, tweezers, franking, postmark, first-day cover…

While Reading: We are told that he was very excited. He also mentions to his father how interesting the stamps are, and even after the rain stops, he does not feel like playing football.

Suggestions and answers

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.
   a. Asim began to sort out his stamps when he went to his room. Asim emptied the stamps on to the floor and then sorted them into small piles. He put the stamps into envelopes according to which country they had come from.
   b. Yes.
   c. He wrote the name of a country on each envelope and put stamps from that country in it.
   d. Asim’s father advised him to soak the stamps that were stuck to envelopes in water so that they came off easily and did not get damaged.
   e. On some pages of the album there were nine or ten stamps; on other pages there were only two or three stamps. They were arranged in sets.
   f. On each page, at the bottom, in very neat writing, there was something written about the stamps.
   g. Michael Davidson was Uncle Mike.
   h. Toronto is a big city in Canada. Pupils can find more information.
   i. When Asim found the ‘Weeping Princess’, he leapt into the air, shouting.
   j. Uncle Mike’s car was an old Austin.
   This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.
   k. Asim continued working with the stamps even though the rain had stopped because he was very interested in them. He does not feel like playing football anymore and thinks that the ground would still be wet from the rain. However, these seem more like excuses; he is more interested in the stamps and the possibility of finding the ‘Weeping Princess’.

2. Answer the questions about these lines from the story.
   ‘Don’t pull them off, but leave them to soak in some water. Then they will come off easily and won’t be damaged.’
   a. Asim’s father was giving the advice to Asim.
   b. The stamps were stuck on to envelopes, and if they were not treated with care they would be damaged.
   c. After this, and after lunch, Asim went back to his room and went through the pages of his stamp album.
Challenge: Asim did not read the letters because they were not his and he remembered that his parents had told him not to read other people’s letters. Pupils will give their own views.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Find words in the passage which have the same meaning as the following.
   a. envelope  b. magnifying glass  c. weeping  d. carefully
   e. stamp  f. examined  g. half  h. rare
   i. raced  j. pile

2. Are the words in bold below subjective, objective, or possessive pronouns? Write S, O, or P after the sentences.

C LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

Tenses
Review the tenses mentioned.

1. What is the tense of each of the following sentences?
   a. The man is sitting on a chair. (present continuous)
   b. Michael and Moiz went to England last year. (simple past)
   c. She sleeps for an hour after lunch. (simple present)
   d. Bina was talking about the books. (past continuous)
   e. Yesterday, Maria typed fifteen pages. (simple past)
   f. He is eating a yellow banana. (present continuous)
   g. The children were playing under the banyan tree. (past continuous)
   h. Rahim plays cricket very well. (simple present)

D LISTENING AND SPEAKING

What do you think Asim did with the ‘Weeping Princess’?
Explain that they can think of the obvious (Asim sells the stamp; Asim frames the stamp and keeps it.) or something more interesting. This is what they have to discuss and decide. Then they should report what he does with it.

E COMPOSITION

Imagine you are Asim. Write a letter to the director of the company. Ask for more information about the stamp. How much is it worth? Are there any other stamps available? Where should you keep them?
Pupils should study the information provided. The address of the company, contact person and other details are all there, so they should use this in their formal letter requesting information. The stamp will need to be described too.
A SHORT NOTES

1. Pretend that you were the photographer who took photographs of Faiza’s pothole garden. Read the sample notes given below about flower potholes and write your own notes.

Then, write a descriptive paragraph about the pothole garden.

Check your work using a dictionary and make sure you have used interesting words. Draw a picture to go with it and write your paragraph neatly.

Pupils will compose their own short notes.

B SIMPLE PAST TENSE

Make sure the pupils understand that both exercises A and B should be read before written work is begun. Each verb in the box should only be used once.

1. Fill in the blanks with the simple past tense of a verb from the box.
   a. held  b. sent  c. threw  d. swam  e. struck

2. Can you complete this table?

C I CAN’T BECAUSE

Oral: Some examples with because.

1. Match the two halves of the sentences in columns A and B.
   a. I can’t buy any sweets because I don’t have any money.
   b. I can’t sit down because the chair is broken.
   c. The car won’t start because there is no petrol in the tank.
   d. The man is angry because he has lost his money.

2. Write sentences of your own. Each sentence must contain the word because and one of the phrases below.

Some examples:
   a. The baby can’t climb trees because he is too young.
   b. The policemen can’t catch the thief because he is too quick.
   c. I didn’t buy the silk shirt because it was too expensive.
   d. I can’t see the road because it is too dark.
   e. The small boy could not sit still because he was too excited.
   f. The little girl won’t speak to me because she is too shy.
   g. They can’t buy a new oven because they are too poor.
h. I didn’t win the race because I was too slow.
i. He couldn’t carry it home because it was too heavy.
j. My uncle says he can’t run because he is too old.

D MAY OR MAY NOT

Oral: Discuss the pictures. Use may.

1. Write sentences about the pictures below using the word may. The first one has been done for you.
   b. If the boy beats the drum hard, it may break.
   c. If the bicycle has a puncture, they may fall off.
   d. If that man cuts down the tree, the dog may get hurt.

2. Now match the following.
   a. You may have to wait in the lift for two hours, if the electricity goes off.
   b. You may drown, if you go to sea in a storm.
   c. You may have to leave the house, if you don’t pay the rent.
   d. You may knock into things, if you can’t see very well.
   e. You may not be able to eat this biscuit, if your teeth are loose.
   Note that the clauses can be interchanged: If you do X, Y may happen.

E ANAGRAMS

1. Rearrange the letters in the following to make new words.
   Some solutions:
   a. TAR/ART
   b. TAPES/SPATE
   c. RATS/ARTS
   d. SHAPE
   e. TEAM/MATE/TAME
   f. SWEAR
   g. TEAR
   h. SILENT
   i. POTS/POST/TOPS
   j. QUITE
   k. MALE

2. Now try to make anagrams from the following. Make two new words from each word below. Discuss the example.
   a. RAT IN/ART IN  b. THEY SEE  c. REAL FUN

Workbook: pages 89–93
The test covers textbook and workbook units 1–15.

A UNSEEN COMPREHENSION

1. Read the passage aloud.
   This is a factual account and should be read in a neutral tone. No doubt pupils will show some hesitation over reading some of the more unfamiliar words, but they should try to work out what these words are and attempt to read independently.

2. Answer the following questions.
   a. Pyramids are found in Nigeria, Sudan, Greece, Indonesia, Peru, and Egypt. Most of them are in Egypt.
   b. A bull elephant can weigh around 6 tonnes.
   c. Great Pyramid of Khufu or Pyramid of Cheops.
   d. The theft of the covering stones means that the height of the Great Pyramid is now 137 metres. With them, it was 146.5 metres. The height was reduced by 9.5 metres.
   e. It was of fine quality.

3. Circle the best answer for each of the following. (The words are in bold in the passage.)
   a. iii. king
   b. i. meet
   c. ii. four-sided
   d. i. three-sided
   e. ii. the Nile

B TEXTBOOK QUIZ

1. Who do you think might have said the following?
   a. Ruth Pfau (Ruth Pfau)
   b. someone in the audience (Variety Performance)
   c. Pip (Pip Meets a Convict)
   d. The lady (The Thousand Rupee Note)
   e. The parrot (The Story of Doctor Dolittle)

2. In which poems do you find these lines or things?
   a. A night in June
   b. Limericks
   c. From a railway carriage

3. Write two sentences about one of the following.
   Pupils will frame their own sentences. Here are some facts we know from the text:
   a. Katrina
   b. Mr Joe Gargery
   c. The Weeping Princess was a tiny mark which looked like a tear on the princess’s cheek, hence the name ‘The Weeping Princess’; the stamp is rare

C WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Write these words in alphabetical order.
   jack, jam, jar, jelly, jig, joke, jolly, jump

2. Write the opposites of the following.
   a. blunt   b. dull(dim)   c. ill (sick)
   d. poor    e. unkind (mean)   f. beautiful

3. What is it? Who is it?
   a. fishmonger   b. a, e, i, o, u   c. sentence
   d. tortoise   e.  deer (dear)

4. Complete the following:
   a. as free as a bird (the air)   b. as graceful as a swan

5. What are homophones?
   Homophones are words which have the same sound as other words but different spellings and different meanings.

6. Give two pairs of words that are homophones.
   Examples: a. deer/dear   b. bare/bear   c. site/sight
   d. sail/sale   e. fur/fir   f. bore/boar

D LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

1. What is an adjective?
   A word that describes a noun or a pronoun

2. Give three examples of adjectives.
   Examples: a. big   b. small   c. amazing

3. Use the word ‘because’ in a sentence.
   Example: He was sent home because he forgot to bring his notebook.

4. Use the word ‘if’ in a sentence.
   Example: If it rains, we shall not be able to play outside.

5. Underline the subjects in these sentences.
   a. Rehan and Sadia went to Murree last year.   b. The children of Class Five went on a picnic.

6. Underline the direct objects in these sentences.
   a. My father found a small ivory box.   b. The man at the museum examined it carefully.

7. Underline the indirect object in these sentences.
   a. Anum bought a sweet for her brother.   b. He showed the stamp to me.

8. Use for or since and fill in the blanks.
   a. Mr and Mrs Riaz have been married since 1992.   b. They have lived together for many years.
9. Is the underlined verb in this sentence transitive or intransitive?
   Transitive (the sword is the direct object)

10. Into which three groups are tenses usually divided?
    Past, Present and Future.

11. Underline the infinitives in the following sentences.
    a. Bilal tried to eat the sandwich.
    b. The boys wanted to swim but the girls wanted to paint.

12. Put adverbs of place in the spaces below.
    a. The children walked away from school.
    b. Please come here tomorrow; don’t be late.

13. What is the difference between a transitive and an intransitive verb? Give an example of each, used in sentences.
    A transitive verb has a direct object.
    E.g. The boys played football.
         The children ate sandwiches.
    An intransitive verb does not have a direct object.
    E.g. The boys played.
         The children slept.

14. Use the following in sentences of your own.
    Pupils will compose sentences of their own. Check them for proper structure.

E  CONJUNCTIONS

1. Fill in the blanks in the following passage using so, although, or because.
   because; because; Although; so

2. Change the sentences, using the conjunction or.
   a. Sandra doesn’t eat fish or drink milk.
   b. She doesn’t like swimming or diving.
   c. On her holiday, she didn’t go walking or use her bicycle.
   d. She wasn’t feeling well or sleeping at night.
   e. She hasn’t sent any emails or finished her book yet.

F  COMPOSITION

You have met one of the following people and learnt about their work. Write a letter to your friend describing their work.

Pupils will write about one of the people suggested. Look out for the form of the letter, and also the content—the more observant and descriptive the better.

A COMPREHENSION

1. Answer the following questions.

   a. A passport is an official document which is issued by a country’s government. It confirms the holder’s identity and citizenship and allows them to travel under its protection to and from foreign countries.

   b. Ruth Pfau was a German. She came from Germany to Pakistan because she wanted to use her skills to help poor and sick people.

   c. When Pfau first visited Karachi. She visited the place where people affected by leprosy were living. She was shocked and saddened by the dirty conditions they lived in. She decided that she must help them.

   d. She was granted the Pakistani citizenship in 1988.

   e. Leprosy is a disease which can be treated with medicine. But if left untreated, it damages the nerves of the affected people. The nerve damage makes people with leprosy numb in certain parts of their bodies, such as their fingers and toes, because of this they may end up losing them. It can also damage people’s eyes, skin, and airways. People with untreated leprosy can end up with weakened muscles and poor eyesight too.

   f. Ruth Pfau gave medical aid to the people suffering from leprosy. She started her first clinic in a hut in the area where the people with leprosy lived. By the end of her life she had helped to set up 157 leprosy clinics across Pakistan. Therefore, she is remembered as generous, intelligent, and noble woman who dedicated her life to serving the poor.

   This question is more difficult. Discuss it first.

   g. Before Ruth Pfau worked to improve the conditions of the people affected by leprosy, the disease was feared because it had no cure. People didn’t understand how it spread or how it could be treated. As a result, the people with leprosy were treated very badly. Sometimes all the people with leprosy in one region were sent to live together with no one to look after them. They could only survive by begging or with the help of a few kind people.

2. Answer the questions about these words from the text.

   ‘I could not believe that humans could live in such conditions.’

   a. Ruth Pfau said that she could not believe that humans could live in such conditions.

   b. She was from Germany.

   c. She was talking about the conditions in which the people affected by leprosy lived.

   d. She gave medical help to people with leprosy and helped to set up 157 leprosy clinics across Pakistan.

B WORKING WITH WORDS

1. Do you know what these words mean? Look up the definitions and write them in your books.
C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

vaccine - a substance used to stimulate the production of antibodies and provide immunity against one or several diseases.
disease - a condition that causes harm to the health of a person, animal, or plant; illness; sickness.
clinic - a place that gives medical treatment, usually to people who do not need to stay in a hospital overnight.
hygiene - the practice of keeping clean to stay healthy and prevent disease.
treatment - to give medicine or use other ways to help cure a disease or heal an injury.
cure - the process of making a sick person healthy or well.

2. Put suitable words from the box into this paragraph about vaccination.

Vaccinations save lives. Vaccines protect people against infections and diseases. Vaccinations are given as an injection, tablet, or drink. Polio, typhoid, cholera, and hepatitis A are dangerous diseases which can be prevented by vaccination. In many countries, babies are given vaccines soon after they are born. If everyone has a vaccine against a disease, the disease cannot spread. One of the first diseases to be stopped by vaccines was called smallpox.

C. LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

1. Which of the following are facts and which are opinions? How do you know?
   a. Ruth Pfau was a woman. (fact)
   b. Ruth Pfau was a nice woman. (opinion)
   c. Germany and Pakistan are countries. (fact)
   d. Germany is a beautiful country. (opinion)
   e. People should help other people. (opinion)
   f. There were floods in Pakistan in 2010. (fact)

2. Find two facts and two opinions in the passage about Ruth Pfau.
   Ask students to come up with two facts and opinions and jot them down in their notebooks.

D. LISTENING AND SPEAKING

What can people do to stop the spread of diseases? Talk about this in pairs. Make a list of measures to take to stop diseases from spreading. Share your ideas in class. What do you know about vaccinations? First, talk about this in pairs. Then, note down what you know in a spider-diagram. Share your ideas with the class.

Discuss with the class, the importance of vaccinations. Talk about how vaccines have helped in providing immunity and treating various diseases. Help students use the internet to find more information regarding vaccinations. To illustrate further you can also use picture profiles of those who discovered/introduced vaccines (for example Edward Jenner was the first to introduce vaccine against smallpox).

E. COMPOSITION

Using the headings below, make some notes about a person you respect or admire. If it is someone you know, you can ask them for some information about their life. If it is a public figure, you can do some research about them.
Use the framework below to write about the person you respect. You can draw a picture of them too.
Students should be able to write about the given topic sentence. They should be able to divide their writing into paragraphs as given in the exercise. They can also make a similar spider-diagram as given in Ex. D, to make quick notes.

Workbook: pages 86-87

A SUBJECT AND PREDICATE: REVISION

Oral: Deal with the text, and give further examples.

1. In the sentences below, underline the subject.
   a. The boy walked to the market.
   b. He bought a basket of mangoes.
   c. The basket of mangoes was very heavy.
   d. An old man and a donkey were passing by.
   e. The boy asked the old man for help.
   f. The old man put the basket on the donkey’s back.

2. Now underline the predicate. Remember that the verb is part of the predicate.
   a. Roshan and Zia sat comfortably in the boat.
   b. The boatman pushed the boat into the water.
   c. He jumped into the boat.
   d. The boat turned over.
   e. The boys and the boatman got very wet.
   f. The three of them swam ashore.

B GROUPS

Only four groups are given here. From time to time you may ask the pupils to write down as many words as they can think of under any other subject heading. Who can think of the most words? This is a good way to encourage them to think, and to write words and learn to spell them. Words that they have not included in their own lists can be added later, when they have heard what other pupils have included in their own lists.

Fill the sacks with nouns given in a box on page 92, belonging to the correct group.

<td>Activity: Verbs&lt;br&gt;Revise the concept of verbs with the students. Conduct a small activity (as follows) to check and cement the concept:&lt;br&gt;1. Write ‘Yesterday I …..’ on the top corner of the board.&lt;br&gt;2. Encourage the students to think of simple verb forms and make a list on the board. Show on the board how to change the present tense into the past tense. (e.g. eat-ate, book-booked)&lt;br&gt;3. Inform the students that they will now have to make sentences about what they did the day before, i.e. yesterday.&lt;br&gt;4. Provide a few examples of how to use ‘Yesterday I...’ with a past tense verb in a sentence. E.g. ‘Yesterday I ate a mango.’&lt;br&gt;5. Depending on the strength of the class, divide the class into groups of 4 to 5 (preferably 2 groups – group A and group B).&lt;br&gt;6. Ask a student from group A to make a sentence in the past tense. Give a point for a correct response. Then ask a student from group B to make a sentence using the past tense.&lt;br&gt;7. Continue to play the game until each and every student has had their turn and have successfully made ten sentences altogether.&lt;br&gt;The first group to complete the task will receive 4 points while the second group to complete the task will receive 3 points.&lt;br&gt;You can demonstrate the activity to guide the students, if they are having any difficulties in the beginning. Use more examples to practice the use of verbs with students.</td>
